Air Force will sponsor space class

The United States Air Force will sponsor a "Youth Institute on Aeronautics and Space" for youths aged 12 to 17, Aug. 11-15, at Nardin Park United Methodist Church, 2885 Eleven Mile, Farmington Hills. The $25 registration fee includes all models and supplies.
The week-long program will include the history and theory of flight, aircraft design and propulsion, and journeys into space with reusable satellites and manned flights.
Participants will build and fly their own airfoils, airplanes and rockets. A field trip to Pontiac Airport will conclude the program. Students will visit the control tower and learn about weather instruments and the complexity of aircraft maintenance and repair.
Airplane rides will be available from Commander Flight Services, Inc. for an additional fee.
Project Officer for the program is Maj. Elton W. Blose, USAF, a Farmington Hills resident with 22 years of active duty experience.

How to have a great family vacation without going too far.

Stay right in your own backyard. Chances are, there are plenty of exciting things to do as a family that aren't that far away. Like visiting a national park. Go fishing. Or camping. Or taking a short trip to the nearest big city or point of interest. And remember. If you're a little short of money for your vacation, see HFC about a Traveloan. You may borrow up to $1500 from Household Finance to pay for your next family vacation. And that'll go a long way. Even if you don't.
