Mary Langdon married to Rev. Smith

Mary Leslie Langdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Langdon of High Valley Street, Farmington Hills, became the bride of the Rev. Jerome Kent Smith in a recent ceremony in St. Matthew United Methodist Church of Livonia, where the bridegroom has been associate pastor for several years.

The Rev. William Ruckard officiated and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Rev. Smith is the son of Mrs. William Fuley of Mio, Mich.

The bride wore a gown of organza and alenon lace with a full-length veil that fell from a Juliet cap. Her linens were yellow double-knit gowns and carried white and yellow daisies and coral rosebuds. Martha Langdon was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Patti Parks, Kay Kettichin, Kate Brooks and Shelley Finney.

The bridegroom's brother, David Smith, was best man. Ushers were Robert Morgan, Lynn Laskowsky, Tom Peyton and Maurice Sharal.

Kathy and Char Cummins of Reform, Ala., were flower girl and ring bearer.

The couple received guests at the Shenandoah Country Club in West Bloomfield before leaving on a Jamaica honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Michigan State University and has taught five years in Graham School in the Wayne-Westland school district. Her husband, a graduate of Central Michigan University and Barrett Bible Institute, is taking over as pastor of Trinity and Plainfield United Methodist churches near Fowlerville. The couple will live in Fowlerville.
