The Redford Agricultural Society will hold their 26th annual exhibits at Redford Sept. 21-22-23.
They are planning to make this the best fair in this part of the country.
Take a day off and see what Redford is doing.

You need not ask Perry Wixom how the other fellow looks, for his appearance is due to an accident which occurred at Lockie's last Monday. A board fell from the scaffold and struck Perry a glancing blow, which fortunately broke bones, but sadly disfigured his face.
Mrs. J. F. Goodrich gave a pleasant farewell party Wednesday evening to the young people of the Smith family who are about to leave for their new home in Lansing.
Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Lansing, and their friend Mr. and Mrs. George R. Dfield al o of Lansing and Mr. and Mrs. Abram Sherman and son of Edmore are visiting the old home at Palmer Shermans.
A ladies pocket book was lost Sunday afternoon, on the road between Palmer Sherman's and Nichols Corners. The pocket book contained about $4.00 and two railroad tickets from Detroit to Lansing.
Learned men tell us that in Latin the word "editor" means something "to eat." In the United States its meaning is altogether different. It means to scratch around like blazes to get something to eat.
A pretty little wedding took place at the Methodist Parsonage Wednesday afternoon, when Ernest E. Drake was united in marriage to Miss Bessie E. Ferguson of Orchard Lake. The groom's brother I. Stanley Drake and the brides two sisters Katherine and Eva May comprised the wedding party.
Miss Ruth Gillis of the Enterprise, and Miss Anna Lasher, of The Redford Record, left last Saturday on the Eastern Express association excursion. They will visit the Soo and several other northern points on their trip, returning in time for editors day at the State fair Thursday.

The Methodist pastor goes to Conference next Wednesday and while there is no certainty as to his future it is quite probable that he will not be sent back to Farmington. Next Sunday will probably be his last Sunday in the pulpit.
His subject in the morning will be "Jesus the Light of the World" and in the evening "Contact with Jesus the Only Vital Principle of Life." The following is a very truthful remark: "The man who grows up in his native town is regarded as a boy by his elders until he is well started down the declivity of life that ends in a hole. The stranger who comes into a place is more often pushed to the front than the young man who has grown up with the town. This is the reason why so many young men become dissatisfied with their home surroundings and long to cast their lot in other quarters.
The state railroad commission has issued an order prohibiting the careless use of combination coaches.
These are divided into compartments, one for smokers and the other for baggage. Frequently these are run with the baggage end ward the engine, but when the terminus is reached, the car is not turned about. Consequently the passenger then rides between the engine and baggage with only a thin partition on the engine side to protect him in case of accident.
This is now strictly forbidden.

Here is the way the paners will write up weddings ten years hence: The bride looked very well in a traveling dress, but all eyes were centered upon the groom. He wore a dark suit that fitted his form perfectly and in his dainty gloved hands he carried a small rose. His curly hair was beautifully done and a delicate odor of hair oil of the best quality floated down the aisle as he passed. The young people will miss him now that he is married. He is loved by all for his many accomplishments, his tender grace and his winning ways. The bride commands a good salary as bookkeeper and the groom will miss none of the luxuries to which he has been accustomed. A crowd of pretty men saw them off at the depot.
