

Honored

Monsignor Thomas Beahan (right) of Our Lady of Sorrows parish, Farmington, gives a big smile to the crowd which honored him on his 75th birthday at Farmington Hills Country Club this week. Looking on is Joe Nitkiewicz, chairman of the dinner and director of the golf tournament conducted in the monsignor's honor. More than 200 persons attended the dinner. (Photo by Evert)

Adult registration is set

Registration for adult daytime classes at Bond School Center, 31200 Thirteen Mile, and high school completion courses begins Monday, Aug. 25. The date coincides with the opening of Michigan Adult and Community Education Week as proclaimed by Gov. William Milliken. The proclamation encourages people in all parts of the state to take advantage of the educational and recreational opportunities available locally.

The classes at Bond Center, Thirteen Mile at Orchard Lake Road, start Monday, Sept. 15.

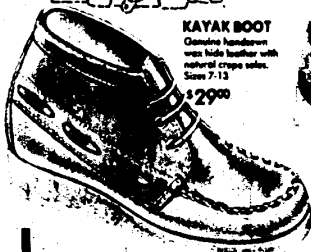

They go from belly dancing and bridge (beginners and intermediate) to cake decorating, ceramics, crewel embroidery and crocheting. Others on the list are: Exercises, self-defense for women, decoupage, drawing and sketching, interior decorating, macramé and needlepoint.

Sewing, weaving and drapery making are also offered. Some of the more traditional classes offered include: conversational French and Spanish, shorthand refresher, and typing. Yoga is given Mondays, 9:30-11:30 a.m. Cost of the courses runs from $6 to $12, plus materials. Child care is available. Registration is at the Bond School Center.
