Representatives from four Farmington bowling lanes recently presented a $500 check to New Horizons of Oakland County. Participating in the ceremony are (from left) Fred Hamlin, owner of Farmington Lanes; Sandra Galassi, placement coordinator for New Horizons; and Nathan Harris, from Drakeshire Lanes. Country Lanes and Bel-Air Lanes were other contributors. New Horizons evaluates persons with handicaps, gives them vocational training and works toward their employment in the community. Marine Private First Class John D. Whitworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Whitworth of 30187 S. Stockton, Farmington, helped provide security for the Apollo astronauts and their equipment while serving aboard the amphibious assault ship USS New Orleans.

He was part of a special detachment from the First Marine division at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif., assigned to the ship for the splashdown and recovery operations.

Vincent W. Beckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Beckley of 21733 Colgate St., Farmington, has been assigned to Kincheloe AFB, from Elmendorf AFB, Alaska.

Bleckley, an Air Force technical sergeant, is a real estate and cost management technician with the 449th Civil Engineering Squadron, a unit of the Strategic Air Command. He is a 1958 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School.

Built Upon Trust

Since its beginning, our firm has grown to include facilities at three different locations.

This growth would have been impossible without the trust of families throughout the community . . . and to be worthy of this trust is our continuing purpose.
