

Oakland 'Y' beginning tot classes

Registrations are now being taken for child and youth classes at the Oakland Branch YWCA, 839 S. Crooks Road, Clawson.

A parent and child learning experience called "Sharing" begins Friday, Oct. 3, at 1 p.m. During the eight two-hour sessions, the parents will have the opportunity to discuss concerns about child rearing with a group facilitator while their child is also learning with other children.

The second hour the parent and child join together in a creative activity which will vary from week to week. The program is for children 3½ to 5 years of age and one parent.

Mom-tot swim, a water adjustment program for children 2½ years old and toilet trained, will be conducted by the YWCA at the South Oakland YMCA on Eleven Mile Road, Royal Oak, starting Wednesday.

Preschoolers age 4 to 6 may be enrolled in tumbling classes which meet Monday afternoons or Friday mornings beginning Monday and Oct. 3. Preschool dance classes are also available for this age group on Wednesdays beginning Oct. 1.

A cooking class for boys and girls age 7-10 will also begin Wednesday.

Eight-year-olds who wish to explore and experiment with different art forms may join a youth art workshop beginning Wednesday under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Jones.

A ceramics class for young people begins Monday at 4:30 p.m. Students will learn how to build and decorate their own pottery.

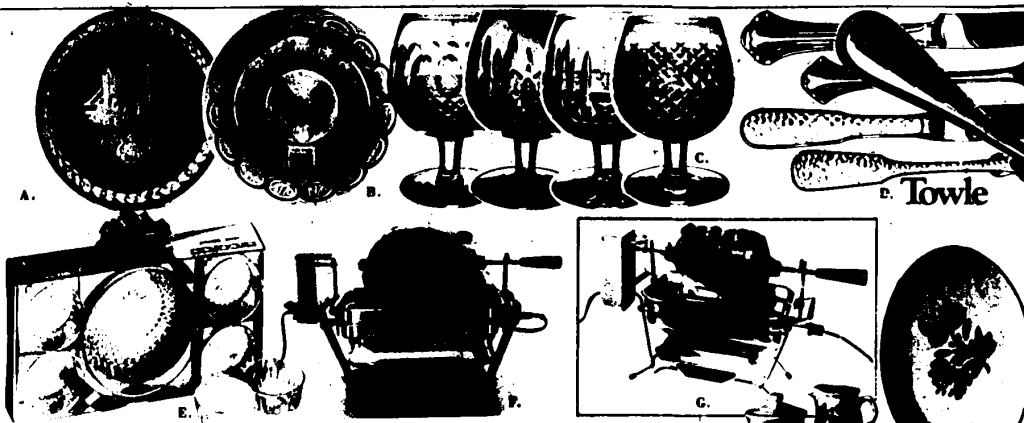

Other classes offered are: guitar on Thursdays and ballet on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, and girls gymnastics classes on Monday and Tuesday after school and Saturday mornings beginning this Saturday.

Women's league sets open meeting

Mrs. Irving Chalken, president of Michigan Branch of Women's League for Conservative Judaism, will welcome branch officers, board members and the 17 sisterhood presidents and their members to the first open branch board meeting of 1975-76. The meeting will be held Monday, in Congregation Beth Israel, in Flint. A brunch at 11 a.m. will be hosted by the Beth Israel Sisterhood.

The agenda will include a Coordinate Educational Activities Committee workshop presented by branch vice-president, Mrs. Seymour Ungar of Southfield; information on the Branch Torah Fund-Resident Hall function and the Women's League Torah Fund-Residence Hall Conference by Mrs. Jack Shinkman of Farmington Hills; and information on the Women's League board meeting and conference to be held in Toronto.

Persons in this area who would like reservations, required by Sept. 20, car pool arrangements or driving directions are asked to contact Mrs. Samuel Braunstein of Farmington Hills.
