

A festive day

Harrison students cheer to tune of victory

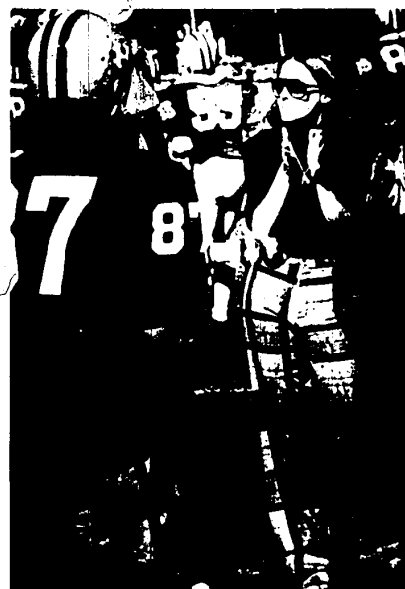

Harrison Junior, Kurt Kaufman, designed the winning float of the day, a replica of the school's symbol, the Hawk.

Staff photos by Harry Mauthé

Bone-crushing action typified the Saturday contest between the Hawks and Northville, with Harrison gridgers coming out on top.

Leesa Barsch, a Harrison fan, cheers on her favorite team as players come off the field for the half-time break.

Harrison twirler Kathy Loughlin added an attractive note to the festivities during the homecoming celebration.

Drum major Steve Markovich stands tall as Harrison's marching band performs.