Men in service

Harold O'Connell is Marine trained

Marine Private Harold J. O'Connell, son of Daniel J. O'Connell of 2769 Westcott Crescent Circle, Farmington Hills, has graduated from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

Marine recruit training includes instruction in close order drill, Marine Corps history, first aid, uniform regulations, and military customs and courtesies. Physical conditioning, discipline and teamwork are emphasized.

Hasten is deployed in Mediterranean

Navy Seaman John F. Hasten of 31536 Rocky Crest Drive, Farmington Hills, has embarked on a Mediterranean deployment aboard the destroyer USS Bigelow, homeported at Mayport, Fla.

He and his shipmates will participate in various training exercises and naval operations as a unit of the U.S. Sixth Fleet and will visit several European countries.

Cadets finish freshman year

Cadet William R. Lough, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lough, 3234 Nestlewood, Farmington, is a 1973 graduate of North Farmington High School. He received a Congressional appointment to the academy.

Cadet Clifford P. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald V. Graham, 21872 Glen Orchard, Farmington Hills, is a 1974 graduate of Farmington High School. He received his appointment through the U.S. Army Reserve.

The cadets have started four years of academic study and military training that will lead to a bachelor of science degree and a commission as a second lieutenant.

Shaun McCrum in Mediterranean

Navy Machinist's Mate Third Class Shaun McCrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McCrum, 32216 Tareyton, Farmington Hills, recently participated in "Deep Exercise," an annual NATO exercise in the eastern Mediterranean Sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Mitscher which was one of 17 U.S. Sixth Fleet ships involved in the multi-nation exercise.

Charles Queen is trained

Pvt. Charles P. Queen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Queen, 31901 Marblehead, Farmington, completed a 14-week radio teletype operation course at the Army Signal School at Ft. Gordon, Ga. on Sept. 4. He received instruction in operating radio transmitting and receiving sets by voice and Morse code.

Pvt. Queen, 23, completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky. A 1970 graduate of Farmington High School, he was employed by Skyline Industrial Services before entering the Army.

Completes Army medical course

Army First Lieutenant David C. Youngblood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Youngblood, 2100 Gill, Farmington Hills, completed a medical service corps officer basic course recently at the Army's Academy of Health Sciences at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Li. Youngblood, a 1968 graduate of Assumption High School, Windsor, Ont., received his BS degree from Wayne State University. His wife, Noreen, lives in Farmington Hills.

Students received training and orientation in military law, unit administration and management, medical supply principles, preventative medicine and certain emergency medical care procedures.

If you've been meaning to visit Detroit's best known skin-care expert — Kitty Wagner — but never got around to calling for an appointment, remember you've got one on October 21.

Kitty Wagner will visit you if you watch Channel 7's A.M. DETROIT show. The next time you meet, let it be at one of her two metropolitan Detroit salons.
