placed at a local club game last weekend. Star Hench, of Livonia, played with his son Steve. They are fine card players and have an excellent partnership. Stan, a Life Master, decided to raise Steve's notrump overcall. Steve, having a minimum, should pass, but he bid game.

West led the four of hearts.

His optimistic bidding was re-warded; he played safe for nine tricks; taking four clubs, two dia-monds, one heart, and two spades.

East played the acc of hearts at trick one, returned a heart to his partner's jack. West, fearful of traping his partner's queen, switched to a spade.

East won the spade king and returned a club. As the cards lie South could have made one more trick, but if a finesse failed, the contract would fail. Steve wisely settled for game and a top score.

Congratulations to Lil and Ted Magiera for winning the club championship at the King and I last Sunday
