Cobo Hall ski show rushes new season

Ski season opens officially in Michigan on Friday, Oct. 31, when The Ski Show/exposwinter '75 takes over Detroit's Cobo Hall for a three-day party. Approximately 200 exhibits will be included in this year's show, which is co-sponsored by the Metropolitan Detroit Ski Council, and they'll all be geared to helping skiers save money. "The Great Ski Bargain Hunt" will extend into equipment, fashions, travel, resorts and everything else related to skiing. And the entertainment will continue non-stop with champion freestylers Scott Brooksbank, Bill O'Leary and Tisha Green performing hot-dog stunts on The Great Ski Machine; Barbara Alley conducting The Magic Fashion Show; rock musicians playing in The Brewery; and the season's best new ski movies flickering on the screen in The International Ski Film Festival. Other exciting features include the Skiing Equipment Center, the Ski Vacation Village, the Welcome Wagon, Austria's Invitation to the Winter Olympics, The Great Ski Swap, Joe Pete Wilson's Ski Touring Course, and the YMCA Ski Fitness Test. Show hours are 4 p.m. to Midnight Friday, Oct. 31; 1 to 11 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 1; and 1 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 2.
