Before you spend $20 for an imitation, check out the real thing.

A pair of Roots' costs more than $20. But even $20 isn't chicken feed. So before you spend it on a pair of shoes that seem almost as good as Roots, chew on this. The Roots sole will outwear any of the imitations, because the Roots sole is compounded of real rubber and the imitations aren't. Roots are made of top-grain Canadian leather, and lined with top-grain leather too. The "cheapos" use less expensive grades that look OK in the store but won't stand up like your Roots will. And Roots are sold only in Roots stores which means you'll be fit correctly, treated nicely, and welcomed back. If you're into a 3-month fad you may still want to save the difference. But if you're making an investment in comfort, good looks and long wear, you're not going to be happy with anything less than the real thing.

Tennis, swimming, crafts begin at Y

The Farmington Area YMCA is responding to the tennis boom by offering 26 indoor classes starting the week of Monday, Nov. 10. Registration is now.

Crafts, swimming, gym and other programs also will begin at the same time. It is not necessary to be a Y member to participate.

To accommodate those wishing to play tennis, the Y will utilize the staff and facilities of Southdowns, Court House and Genta Farm. One of the instructors is Rich Gonzales, son of the internationally known player Pancho Gonzales.

For the week-ones, the YMCA has a variety of pre-school classes designed to improve coordination, skill and adjustment. Swimming, art and gym are offered separately and in various combinations.

Among the classes in the adult creative section are blue jean creations, embroidery, knitting, macrame and quilting. A one-day holiday pie cone workshop will be on the agenda Thursday, Nov. 13.

Otterbacher makes speech

State Sen. John Otterbacher (D-Grand Rapids), who hopes to be a candidate for the U.S. Senate in 1976, will speak at a meeting of the Farmington Democratic Club Thursday, Nov. 6 at 8 p.m.

The event will be held in the Farmington Community Center, on Farmington north of Ten Mile.

Also on the program will be a spokesperson for former U.S. Sen. Fred Harris, who is candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination for president.

3 Farmington students sing

Three Farmington area students will participate in a concert given by the Collegiate Singers of Western Michigan University Sunday, Nov. 16. Concert singers are Debra Brinkman of Farmington and Kandace Grey and Craig Goble of Farmington Hills. The group recently toured the Grand Rapids-Ludington area.

to provide drivers education for teens 15 or older, has a driving program consisting of 30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours behind the wheel. It employs three certified instructors for the program which is on a first come first served basis.

For those who wish to be in good physical condition, there are courses in trimmastics, bellydancing, ballet, men's fitness, judo, gymnastics and yoga. A special 50 plus fitness class is available to members of this age group.

The Y also announces that two holidays trips at Thanksgiving and Christmas are offered to co-ed youth, grades 8-12. From Nov. 28-30, participants will visit Mammoth Cave at a cost of $60 for meals, hotel and tour costs.

David MacKenzie will conduct a Florida trip from Dec. 26 to Jan. 4. The group will backpack and hike in Ocala National Forest. Fee is $159.

For further information on these programs contact the Farmington YMCA, 28106 Farmington Road.

Farmington woman gets scholarship

Lorraine Mansfield, a 1974 graduate of Farmington High School, is the winner of an Adrian College scholarship for the second consecutive year. The scholarship is given in recognition of continued academic excellence.

Also holder of a Michigan competitive scholarship, Miss Mansfield is a sophomore majoring in elementary education. Her campus activities include Circle K, service club, intramural volleyball and stage band. Currently she is a tutor at an elementary school in Adrian.

At Farmington High School, she was an honor society student, recipient of the German department award and active in the band and German club. She also taught church school and was a member of the youth group at the First United Methodist Church. She is the daughter of Donald and Marilyn Mansfield.
