AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS. Farmington Hills Chapter No. 2088 will celebrate the presentation of its charter Friday,

Nov. 21, at 1:30 p.m. in Farmington Community Library on 12 Mile. Mrs. Jessie Hall, assistant to the state director of AARP and Frank

Ryan, who assisted in starting the local chapter will lead the highlight of the afternoon, followed by a lecture and film on "Our Country's Flag" given by Grace Gordon Hay.

Members report that the group's first fund-raising effort was a success and that the chapter is planning its holiday party for Wednesday, Dec. 19, when the O. E. Dunkel Choral Group will be guests.

The November meeting is an open house for all members, guests, and prospective members.

All citizens, 55 years or older, retired or not, are eligible for membership.

ADAT SHALOM SISTERHOOD will hold its paid-up membership luncheon Monday, Nov. 24, at 12:30 p.m. in the synagogue on Middle Belt.

The program for the afternoon is called "Show Me" given by artists who will show their work and demonstrate their skills.

Judy Rossman, of Ceramic City Gallery will make pottery pieces. Cathy Sylvan of The Weavery, will show her technique on a hand loom. Anne Meyer, teacher at the Stitching Post, will bring some of her work and explain how it's done.

Membership vice president, Mrs. Manel Katzman, will be chairperson of the day.

Claudia Gold is program vice president and is assisted by Barbara Eskin.

Sisterhood president is Mrs. Harvey Nusebaum, who invites guests for the day. Dues will be payable at the door. There is a nominal charge for the luncheon for guests.

Babysitting services will be available throughout the afternoon.

SENIOR CITIZENS DROP-IN CENTER is open every Monday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Masonic Temple off Grand River and Farmington Road. Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Coffee and dessert are furnished.

FARMINGTON AREA NATURALISTS will meet Monday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. in Farmington Community Center, 2475 Farmington Road for a program by Hartley Thornton called "Nocturnal Animals."

Thornton is a naturalist from Haven Hill. This meeting is open to all persons who are interested in nature.

DETROIT MUSICIANS LEAGUE, an affiliate of the Michigan Music Teachers Association and Music Teachers National Association, will meet at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 25, in Marygrove College's Madame Cadillac Hall. Donald Morelock, head of the piano department at Schoolcraft College

Once upon a time in the wonderful world of Christmas, two musical mice joyously planned a party. They invited Santa Claus, and his helpers, the balloon man, a sleighful of toys... and now they would like to invite you! Please join them in the Children's Store on Friday, November 21 from 7 to 9 p.m. for magical memories that live happily ever after. P.S. Mom and Dad, bring a camera.
