MICHIGAN STATE

Charles Babbin, a Michigan State University student from Birmingham, recently completed a summer internship working for the Ingham County Probate Court-Juvenile Home. Babbin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Babbin, was graduated in 1972 from Seaborn High School. He is a senior majoring in legal and political philosophy in MSU's James Madison College. During his internship, Babbin was a volunteer probation officer. He investigated and counseled juveniles who were put on probation. He also attended preliminary hearings of juveniles brought to the probate court.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
Richard S. Hartman, a junior at the University of Kansas, was awarded a scholarship for 1975-76 Hartman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hartman of Birmingham.

ADRIAN COLLEGE
Carol A. Diederich, a 1972 graduate of Groves High School, received a 1975-76 college presidential award, one of the newest of the school's scholarships. Miss Diederich was given the award in recognition of outstanding accomplishments, involvement and strong potential shown in a pre-professional area. It is a $1,000 award renewable annually if academic excellence is maintained and not necessarily awarded for financial need. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Diederich of Franklin, Miss Diederich is a sophomore interested in religion and language study.

DES MOINES SCHOOL

Michael A. Clancy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clancy of Southfield, is attending the Des Moines School of osteopathic medicine and surgery in Des Moines, Iowa as a first-year medical student. Clancy is a 1974 graduate of Michigan Technological University and a 1976 graduate of Southfield-Lathrup High School.

U OF M

Elizabeth Ann Benson of Birmingham has been awarded the Caroline M. Hewins scholarship for 1975-76. The scholarship is named after one of the earliest supporters of children's services in libraries and the librarian of the Hartford Public Library from 1873-1928. Ms. Benson will use the $1,100 award when she attends the school of library service at the University of Michigan this fall. Ms. Benson was graduated from Marian High School and the University of Michigan. She is an honor student and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, who has worked three years in the auto room at the University.

MSU

Rhonna Sachs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sachs of West Bloomfield, was accepted into the honors college at Michigan State University.

INTERLOCHEN

Donna J. Katzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Katzman of Birmingham, was among a group of advanced modern dancers at the National Music Camp at Interlochen last summer who performed for Mrs. Gerald Ford. The President and Mrs. Ford visited the camp during their July weekend in Michigan. The modern dance performance was entitled "Abend." After the program Mrs. Ford shook hands with each dancer and signed autographs.

MIAMI OF OHIO

William Brown Randall Jr. of Birmingham, a graduate student majoring in zoology at Miami University of Ohio, was recently inducted into that school's chapter of the Society of Sigma Xi. Sigma Xi is a national society to promote scientific research for men and women.

Table settings is program topic

The Farmington Garden Club will meet Monday, Dec. 1, to hear a program called "Holiday Dining Made Beautiful" given by Mrs. John Passfield, a member of Hill and Dale Garden Club.

Library sponsors rocket program

The Farmington Hills branch library will present a science fiction and science fact fair on Saturday, Dec. 6, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. It will be presented in conjunction with the National Association of Rocketry and will include an aerospace model rocket program.

There will be an introduction to model rocketry which will include plastic and flying model construction, contest and sport modeling, design and flight problems and a flight demonstration.

The all-day program will include science fiction—Star Trek and NASA films. Booths will display space photographs, space art, space stamps and model rocket displays. There also will be slide presentations.

The fair will open at 9:30 a.m. with a Star Trek film. At 10:30 a.m. there will be an introduction to model rocketry. The highlight of the day will be a model rocket flight demonstration at 12:30 (weather permitting). Another film is scheduled at 1 p.m.

The program is free and open to all ages. Participants are invited for all or part of the day. The library is at 32737 12 Mile.

Northern Michigan awarded 225 degrees at the August commencement. Among the students who received bachelor's degrees were: Nancy Nowak of Birmingham, secondary education; Kenneth Roe of Farmington, medical technology; Bridget Hart of Farmington, elementary education; Susan Hogg of Rochester, nursing education; William Stovos of Rochester, business administration; Onderella Milu of Troy, medical technology; and Richard Young of Troy, fine arts.
