Moore-Colley

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Moore, 21317 Larkspur, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter Laurie Ellen to Fredrick N. Colley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick N. Colley of Howell.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Farmington High School, presently employed with the Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Farmington High School and attended Ferris State University.

The couple plan to be wed in July 1976.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Froberg

Leslie Ann Cloutier and William Lee Froberg were married in Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Farmington Hills. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Cloutier of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Froberg of Birmingham.

The bride wore a white floor-length lace gown with bishop sleeves and stand-up collar. Her floor-length veil was attached to a picture hat.

The couple received guests after the ceremony in Kingsley Inn before leaving on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. They are now at home in Birmingham.

Children announce parents' wedding

The children of Ruth Sprayberry and Roy Henrich announce the marriage of their parents, performed Saturday, Nov. 22, by Rev. Carl Mehl and Rev. Victor Mesenbring in Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Farmington Hills.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Vernon Hino, who served as matron of honor, and Donald Burrell, best man.

Guests were received after the ceremony in Botsford Inn Coach House.

2-part lecture series is set

Rabbi Sherwin Wine will present the first in a series of two lectures on the subject "Sexual Liberation" Friday, Nov. 28, at 8 p.m. in Birmingham Temple, 2801 Twelve Mile Road, Farmington.

He says of the series, called "Male Liberation - The New Rebellion," "When Judah Maccabee led the Jews to victory against the Greeks, no image of the male was more prestigious than that of the warrior father. 'Until modern times this image prevailed and dominated the ambitions and success fantasies of all boys."

Today, urban living and female liberation have forced men to rethink their self-image. New and very different role options have emerged. Male liberation is real and growing."

On the same evening, a service on the theme of Hanukkah will be presented, when students of the tenth-grade Wednesday class at the temple will read the service.

Naming ceremonies of Shaom Brown, daughter of Rosalie and Joel Brown, and Joshua Penn Ruderman, son of Laurie and Gerald Ruderman, will be celebrated.

Madrigal Club sets concerts

The Madrigal Club of Detroit, with George T. Sull, conductor, will be in concert Saturday, Dec. 6, at 8 p.m. in Calvary Lutheran Church, 2801 Evergreen, in Southfield.

The program will feature Bright's "Trilogy for Women's Voices" and the "Bell Chorus" from Mahler's 3rd Symphony, along with works by Beethoven, Brahms, Delio, Palestrina, and Poulenc, as well as traditional Christmas Music.

As a memorial tribute to the late August Mackelberghe, who was conductor for the club for 25 years, the group will sing "How Do I Love Thee."

WHY?

There is a reason why our customers prefer our coats after they've shopped. They tell us the quality is better, the fullness is greater and the fit is perfection. This is only possible when you manufacture your own, eliminating the skin dealer and manufacturer's profits. Incidentally, the prices are lower also. Our selection of mink garments is one of the largest in Canada.
