Christmas parade set for Dec. 13
Oakland County's only Christmas parade this year will be sponsored by the City of Berkeley and the Berkeley Jaycees. The parade is planned for Saturday, Dec. 13.
The Jaycees are asking groups to participate in the parade. Entries may be floats, marching units, bands, clowns or other participants.
Filing date for the parade will continue through Monday, Dec. 10. The parade will begin promptly at 1 p.m. For further information, call the parade chairman, Ron Novak, at 548-8684.

BAZARS

Nov. 23-24—A Christmas bazaar of handcrafted gift items will be held at the Allen House, 556 W. Maple, Birmingham, on Thanksgiving weekend. Hours on Saturday will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sunday, noon to 5 p.m.
Nov. 23-24—A Christmas Antique show will be held from noon to 10 p.m. on Thanksgiving weekend in Bostford City, Grand River and Eight Mile Road in Farmington. Items include hand painted china, art glass, old kitchen items and oak furniture, including cupboards, ice boxes, tables and sets of chairs.
Dec. 3—The third annual holiday mart will be held at Pierce School, Fourteen Mile Road and Pierce St., Birmingham, from 1 to 7 p.m. in the school gym. More than 25 booths of handcrafted items will be featured plus a bake shop, cookie sale and hot cider.
Dec. 6-7—The Romeo Historical Society will feature its annual Christmas fair from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Romeo Senior High School. Artists and craftsmen from Rochester, Farmington, Troy, Birmingham, Southfield and Livonia will be featured.

Volunteers

This column describing volunteer needs in Oakland County is cosponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau.
Inquiries regarding volunteer needs listed here should be made to the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, 3580 W. Maple, through the bureau.
MARCH OF DIMES, Birmingham, needs volunteers to assist with the Mothers' March to be held throughout Oakland County Jan. 22 to 28. Community chairmen organize and recruit area workers. Area captains recruit marchers and marchers canvass 20 homes in their neighborhoods. Assistance is needed preparing the marchers' kits, and it is suggested that this would be a good project for scout groups or senior citizen groups. Volunteers also are needed for the speakers' bureau, which gives presentations to school, club and church groups.
44TH DISTRICT COURT in Oak Park needs adult male or female volunteer probation officers. Each volunteer meets for about an hour each week on a one-to-one basis with a probationer. An effort is made to match persons with others near their homes. Orientation and ongoing training are provided. Additional volunteers are needed for clerical help in the probation department and in the courtroom.
EARTH ALIVE in Farmington needs male or female junior or senior high school students to sort gifts at the recycling center, near Eleven Mile and Orchard Lake roads, Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon. Interested adults also are needed immediately for lobbying and petitioning for upcoming environmental legislation.

Tri-Deltas set mini-carnival

Delta Delta Delta sorority alumnae of Dearborn-Western Wayne County will sponsor a mini-carnival Tuesday, Dec. 2, to raise funds and collect toys for the Children's Leukemia Foundation.
The carnival is part of Sleighbell Day, a national program sponsored by Tri-Delta to raise money to support research for children's blood diseases. Locally, all proceeds and toys will be donated to the Child Research Center and Beaumont Hospital.
Admission to the carnival, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drayton, 27408 Spring Valley Drive, Farmington Hills, is a wrapped toy for a leukemia patient. The toys are used for Christmas gifts and for cheering up children following bone marrow tests.
Reservations should be made with Mrs. Homer Toland, 7000 Lindenmere Drive, Birmingham, Nov. 29.
