

W. Bloomfield- coach's choice for GOAL basketball champion

By DAVE RAY

West Bloomfield High basketball coach Tim Domke last year won a league championship in the second season of his rebuilding program. The Lakers are shooting for another conference crown and better luck in the postseason state playoffs in Domke's third campaign.

Last year, the Lakers posted an 18-3 record overall and captured the Wayne-Oakland League title with a 9-1 mark. Cheneville dropped out of the loop and the five remaining teams—West Bloomfield, Bloomfield Hills Andover, Clarkston, Milford and Waterford Kettering—have reorganized into the Greater Oakland Activities League (GOAL).

Domke sees his team as a favorite in the race for the first GOAL crown and he thinks the toughest competition will come from Milford and Clarkston.

"I look for Milford to be the toughest, but Clarkston and Kettering might give us a hard time, too," he said. "While Andover looks like the weakest team in the league on paper, I'm sure they'll give us some trouble because of the rivalry between our schools."

THE LAKER COACH is pretty well decided on his top eight cagers for the coming season. Don Sam, a 6-4 transfer student from Wisconsin, is slated to see action as West Bloomfield's starting center, while Brian Clifford and Jim Risk hold down the other front line positions at forward. Guards for the Lakers will be Tom Doyle, Hillel Meisel and Kevin Kowalski.

Mark Mailburger has been tapped as the back-up pivotman and Mark Schroeder is the third forward in Domke's line-up.

Clifford, 6-5, is a returning all-league selection. Domke describes him as an all-state candidate and an excellent ballplayer.

The 6-2 Risk is captain of the Lakers.

Domke said his top three guards are all "strong and pretty equal in ability." He plans to rotate Doyle, Mailer and Kowalski at the backcourt spots.

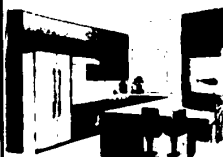

In all, Domke has nine lettermen returning to his squad from last year's league championship team.

ASSISTING DOMKE are coaches Ken Smith and Al Dicken. Two years ago—Domke's first after succeeding Art Paddy—the Lakers posted a 12-10 record. In last year's state district playoffs, West Bloomfield lost to Detroit Murray-Wright, then rated as the number two Class A school.

West Bloomfield faces a tough assignment in its opening game of the 1975-76 season tomorrow (Tuesday) night, hosting always powerful Pontiac Central at 8 p.m. On Friday, the Lakers will host defending Oakland A League champion Avondale in a non-league game. All Lakers games will be broadcast by WBLD (89.3 FM), the West Bloomfield Schools' community radio station, starting at 7:45 p.m. Glenn Schroeder will handle the play-by-play with Dave Guidotti and Lee Miller as color commentators.
