

Still time to order UNICEF Christmas cards

More designs than ever are available this year on the UNICEF Christmas cards that make possible a better life for children all over the world. This is a small sampling of the cards that can be ordered from the Church Women United of Birmingham and the Troy League of Women Voters. The church group will have its sale at the Detroit Edison office, 220 E. Merrill, Monday through Friday until Dec. 12. The LWV will have cards on sale at the Troy post office, 2844 Livernois, along with note cards and gift items also from UNICEF.

Cancer group meets Dec. 1

Dr. Albert Schatz, PhD, microbiologist and biochemist, and co-discoverer of the antibiotic streptomycin, will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Metro Detroit Chapter of International Association of Cancer Victims and Friends. The meeting will be held Monday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m. in O. L. Smith Junior High School, Notre Dame Street, in Dearborn. The school is located one-half block east of Telegraph between Michigan and Van Born Roads.

His topic is "The Cancer Business: An Economic Analysis" and the lecture is open to the public for a donation of $2 asked at the door.

The group was founded in 1963 by Cecile Pollack Hoffman in San Diego, Calif. and has just recently been active in the Detroit area. Ms. Pollack formed the association because she says she believes "that knowledge is our greatest weapon in the prevention or control of cancer."

The group's purpose is to educate and inform laymen and professionals of recent advances, research projects and new discoveries in the field of cancer.

Training set in assertion

Assertive training, an introduction for women, is the topic of a one-day workshop from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 6. Sponsored by the Women's Studies program of the Wayne State University College of Lifelong Learning, it will be held at the Southfield Center, 2810 W. Eleven Mile.

Under the direction of Jane Raitt, coordinator of the Women's Studies program, participants will learn to express ideas, beliefs and opinions in direct, honest straightforward and appropriate ways without interfering with the rights of others. In developing these skills, they will also achieve an understanding of human rights.

Cost of the workshop is $15 and participants are asked to bring their own lunch. Coffee will be served.

Chanukah party

The American Jewish Congress Chanukah dinner party will be held Saturday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Potomac Club, 6200 Farmington Road (north of Maple), West Bloomfield. Tickets for $5 include entertainment and an auction of collectibles. Call the congress headquarters, 21751 W. Nine Mile, for reservations.
