

Volunteers

This column describing volunteer needs in Oakland County is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau.

Inquiries regarding volunteer needs listed here should be made to the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau at 642-7272. Requests for volunteer listings should also be made through the Volunteer Bureau.

GATEWAY CRISIS CENTER, Madison Heights, provides crisis counseling for emotional problems. Volunteers are needed to answer the telephone and staff the center from 7 to 11 p.m. Volunteers work a four-hour evening shift every week talking with drop-ins and doing intake for legal clinics. Volunteers must be 18 years or older and successfully complete training in empathy, crisis intervention, drug abuse and alcoholism.

DETROIT HISTORICAL MUSEUM, Detroit, needs volunteers to man the shops in the Old Streets of Detroit exhibit, to act as guides in the museum Wednesday through Friday and to help prepare workshops for children. Volunteers with skills in craft work such as needlepoint or rug hooking also are needed for demonstrations and workshops. The museum is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. Volunteer hours are flexible. Training is provided.

FARMINGTON NURSING HOME, Farmington Hills, is seeking volunteers to help with the orientation of patients. There will be a two-week training program, but volunteer hours are flexible. The 175-bed nursing home also needs volunteers to assist with bingo, birthday parties and arts and crafts activities.

Dove of Peace

Max Shaye painted the grey and white dove on a blue sea for the all-purpose card currently being sold by the Greater Detroit Section of the National Council of Jewish Women. The informal cards that help further the council's human welfare and social justice program may be purchased in packets of four for $5. Order them through the council's local office at 16400 W. 12 Mile, suite 106, Southfield.

Throughout the month of December, Somerset catches the Holiday Spirit by bringing local school and church choirs to fill the Mall with the "Music of the Season."
