By ETHEL SIMMONS

The open house also featured Sweden's 1975 Lucia, Birgitta Lindvall, in the Lucia ceremony which symbolizes the return of light to Sweden after winter's darkness. The legend has religious significance.

GLOEGG (Hot)
(24 four-ounce servings)

- 1 bottle port wine
- 1 bottle burgundy wine
- 1 bottle aquavit

Boil several minutes with 1/4 pound of small raisins.

Into this, dip cheesecloth bag containing a stick of cinnamon, 10 whole cardamoms and a handful of whole cloves, 2 pieces of ginger and some dried orangepeels. Leave bag in liquid about a minute (longer if you want more spicy flavor).

Serve in a special gloegg glass. If you don't have them, serve in Old-Fashioned glass or coffee cup. Each serving should have some sliced almonds and raisins in each glass.

Note: If you are using Old-Fashioned glass, put in a teaspoon to prevent cracking. Sugar to taste, if desired.

Nell Benedict of Lathrup Village, who teaches gourmet cooking workshops at The Community House in Birmingham, recently devoted one of these sessions to "Hors d'oeuvres Around the World."

Everything was delicious but a special favorite was the liptau, a zesty cheese spread for bread, and the clam rolls, crisply enclosing a variety of flavors.

LIPTAUER

- 8 ounces cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cup butter
- 3 tablespoons sour cream
- 2 anchovy fillets, washed and boned
- 1 teaspoon capers, rinsed and crushed
- 1 tablespoon chopped onions or chives
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon Hungarian paprika
- 1 teaspoon bruised caraway seed
- 1/2 teaspoon or more of salt

Blend all ingredients with an electric mixer until smooth. Shape into a mound on a plate and sprinkle with additional paprika. Chill well. Garnish and serve with pumpernickel or rye bread.

CLAM ROLLS (Hawaii)

- 3 cans minced clams, washed and drained
- 2 cup of chopped black olives
- 8 ounces of cream cheese
- 2 teaspoons sauce Robert
- Freshly ground pepper
- 3/4 cup dry bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons chopped onions or chives

- 4 teaspoon M.S.G. (optional)
- 1/4 teaspoon salt or more to taste
- Egg roll skins
- 1 egg beaten with 1 tablespoon water
- Oil for deep frying

Mix together the cheese, crumbs, sauce Robert, onions, M.S.G., salt and pepper. Gently fold in the olives and clams. Place a generous amount of filling on skins. Roll, tucking in the sides. Seal with the egg mixture. Deep-fry until golden. Slice and serve hot.
