As Detroit Lions Mascot of the week, Jill Addison, 12, of Farmington, and her father had special seats for the Lions-Viking game. She was treated to a ride around the field in the "helmet cart" and will be competing with other Mascots for a round trip to the Super Bowl. Her name was selected in a drawing at Crowley's.

Film history is presented

A course on the history of the film, instruction on opening a small business and a class in parliamentary procedure will be offered at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus this winter.

Introduction to Film, a course in motion picture history and appreciation will meet on Tuesday from 1-4 p.m. and from 7-10 p.m., Wednesday from 7-10 p.m. A fourth class will meet on Thursday from noon to 3 p.m.

Chaplin's "City Lights," Orson Welles' "Citizen Kane" and Bogart in "Casablanca" will be some of the films featured in the course.

The Business Administration Department will offer a course on how to start a small business. Enrollment is limited to 35 students. The course will meet on Tuesday evenings at 7 beginning Jan. 14. Tuition for area residents is $39.

Students will practice conducting and participating in meetings as part of the Parliamentary procedure class. This one-credit speech course will be offered on Wednesday evenings at 8.

Registration for classes at Orchard Ridge begins Jan. 7.

OCC offers new courses

Two new courses are offered by Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus during the winter term.

A course in consumer economics will be taught by the head of the economics department, Dr. Christine Gram. The course is aimed at developing purchasing skills and techniques for budgeting.

Students will be shown what to look for when buying a new house and when purchasing insurance. The class will be held Tuesday from 7-10 p.m.

Another new course will teach students techniques of verbal and non-verbal behavior in interviewing, telephoning and handling complaints. The course, Communication for Career Students, will meet on Monday and Wednesday from 12-30 p.m.

Registration will be from noon to 8 p.m. Jan. 7 and from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Jan. 8 and 9.

The winter semester begins on Monday, Jan. 12.
