

Many happy returns?

Despite the snowy weather, shopping centers and stores were filled again last Friday. But this time, the rush of Christmas shoppers was gone. Replacing them were waves of persons returning unwanted gifts. Store personnel provided special tables for return of toys, jewelry, appliances and other items—but the lines grew longer as the day wore on. And outside the snow just kept falling. Winter, like everything else, was returning.

Staff photos by Craig Newman

1/3 off men's Mark of the Lion sportswear from our fall collection. At Hudson's Northland only.

Now is the opportune time to experience the beautiful fabrics, clean, classic design and outstanding quality of Mark of the Lion from the Anne Klein Studio. Wool, velour, suede, leather and cotton fabrications included. Here, just two looks from the collection. Shirts, reg. 27.50 to 67.50, sale 18.99 to 44.99. Slacks, reg. 62.50 and 72.50, sale 41.99 to 48.99. Sweaters and leisure tops, reg. 22.50 to $125, sale 22.99 to 82.99. Outerwear, reg. $95 to $220, sale 62.99 to 148.99. In Better Sportswear at Hudson's Northland only.

The day after

A familiar scene in shopping centers throughout the area are shoppers returning Christmas gifts that just weren't quite right.

Here Mrs. Edward Kowalski, (right) of Farmington, waits to return a gift. (Photo by Craig Newman)

hudson's after-christmas sales & clearances