Audra Lindenmuth just discovered that what goes down must climb back up. The helping hand up the steep Shiawassee sledding hill comes from her father, Dr. John Lindenmuth. Her sister, April, hopped off the sled to hurry on up to the top for another ride.

Tommy Enright heads back uphill for another run on the great Shiawassee. (Staff photos by Craig Newman)

Crime investigated

Hollis attributed the arrests to the Special Patrol Operations Team (SPOT) unit. This unit uses the old concept of beat patrols by concentrating in the trouble spots in the community. SPOT was formed in January after the department logged an alarming number of break-ins and attempts last year.
