"HEY BABY"

(A 16mm, Color, Anti-Drug Abuse Film for Children)

IS A GOOD REASON TO TURN TO OUR CHILDREN BEFORE THEY TURN TO DRUGS

Because of the tremendous scope of America's drug abuse problems, we are using this space to promote interest in Revco's anti-drug abuse film for pre-adolescent audiences. If "Hey Baby" prevents even a small number of children from socially sampling or experimenting with any of the dangerous or addictive drugs, Revco will have considered its time and monies in producing the film to have been very well spent.

"Hey Baby" is available to schools and any youth-serving organization whose principal aims include the moral welfare of children. If interested write: Corporate Relations Department, Revco Discount Drug Centers, 3030 Quigley Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44113
