

4 promoted in GMC reorganization

E. JARVIS RANSOM of Birmingham, MELVIN A. PULLIN of Birmingham, FELIX T. CANNILLAS of Rochester and RONALD W. MANNING of Rochester are involved in a major reorganization of GMC's Coach Sales & Service Department.

Ransom, coach sales manager, will head up field sales activities, with all coach sales representatives reporting to him. Pullin, former coach sales administrator has been reassigned to the newly created post of coach parts & service manager.

Manning, parts sales coordinator, has 16 years experience with GMC as coach distribution manager, coach sales representative in Kansas City and coach service manager. Cannillas is in charge of home office, coach distribution, sales engineering and factory deliveries.

Auto show debut

Debuting at this week's Detroit Auto Show is the Plymouth Arrow, a subcompact four-passenger, two-door hatchback. The car, in three versions, is imported from Japan and co-designed and engineered by Chrysler

Corp. and Mitsubishi. The Arrow is slightly less than 14 feet long and has EPA mileage estimates of 26 mpg city, 39 mpg highway. The auto show continues through Sunday.
