

Farmington tankers make triple play

All three Farmington high schools recorded swimming victories last Thursday night. North Farmington defeated Livonia Franklin 105-89, Farmington stopped Plymouth Canton 90-86, and Farmington High downed Portia North 113-58.

North Farmington won seven of the 11 events. Diving was a key event for the Hawks. Tim Kuhn finished first with 195.50 points. Bob Wietorich took second and Mike Pacheco was third.

Diving was the turning point for us and North coach Pat Duhon. Tim Kuhn has been sick in bed since Sunday but he got up this morning and went to bed. We were a little concerned because we were going into the meet without Doug Campbell, who is sick with the flu. That took away a first or second in the relay and a better finish in the breaststroke and the individual medley.

North's Clay Sowerth won the 200-yard freestyle in 1:51.7 and teammate John DeMatia won the 200 IM in 2:14.8. The victory lifted North to 8-4 overall and 3-0 in the Northern Suburban League.

Farmington topped its record to 6-2 in the Western Sub League and 3-4 overall. The Hawks won five events led by double winner Chris Hehner, who took the 200-yard freestyle (1:54.8) and the 200-yard freestyle (1:57.7).

"We swam most of our first-year bids," said Harrison coach Mark Holdridge. "I like to do that as much as possible. You have to keep them kids happy."

Two Canton swimmers set variety records. Greg Ward finished the 100-yard butterfly in 1:31.5 and Jim Harris took the 100-yard freestyle in 1:18.

Farmington High, now 7-1 overall had a year of double winners against Portia North. Tim Kuhn won the 200 free.

RESIDENTS PRESENT FLAGS TO UNIVERSITY CONVALESCENT CENTER

University Convalescent & Nursing Center is a member of the prestigious Health Savings Society group of convalescent homes. It offers adult day care and temporary care in addition to nursing home care under the Blue Cross and Medicaid programs.

The home now proudly flies an American flag and a Centennial flag. The presentation of the flag was part of an ongoing program of patient activities within the home. These activities are structured by the patients themselves and the management of the home so that constructive use is made of patient time. Day care, temporary care and permanent care reservations can be made by calling 64-74270.

The reefercoat and newly narrowed skirt. Another instance of the genius of Anne Klein.

Nonchalance—the kind that gets all the attention. Present in our most recent acquisitions from Anne Klein's spring collection.

• A streamlined, double-breasted reefercoat, $250 and once-pleated skirt, $90. Both in navy wool gabardine. Under-toned with the surprise of a peanout-colored knit silk pullover. Embellished with the stately lion, $52. In Misses' sizes. The Woodward Shops, at Downtown, Northland, Oakland Mall and Eastland.
