

Our receptions have been getting great receptions.

Since our opening three years ago, Somerset Inn has established itself as the place people turn to when there's a wedding coming up in the family...for receptions, for wedding parties, for a place to house out-of-town guests, and often for the ceremony itself.

And the reasons for the pre-eminence go quite beyond the fact that we have the finest facilities in the area...such as spacious reception area, fine food and drink, plenty of parking and luxurious accommodations.

You see, we have taken as many pains in building a competent staff as we did in building this fine hotel itself. They are experienced as well as courteous, efficient as well as eager to serve.

And to a man and woman, they're fully aware of how important an event a wedding is to you...and of how much trust is placed in them, to accomplish their jobs smoothly and efficiently.

If your family is looking forward to a wedding, we hope you'll get in touch with our bridal specialists at 643-7800, extension 2271
