Cater-it-yourself fete

The wedding reception can be an expensive catered affair, or an inexpensive do-it-yourself one. To accomplish the latter, simply call on a few friendly cooks to lend a hand.

You can save money, as well as spread a tasteful table.

For an informal wedding, says Emily Post, choose a stand-up reception with sandwiches and snacks. A formal wedding can be paired with a buffet at home or club, or a sit-down in-restaurant serving sandwiches and hors d'oeuvres. Most elaborate is a hot meal as a buffet or sit-down meal.

Emily Post's book of etiquette says it is perfectly proper and economical to invite the wedding party to the bride's home for a reception with whiskey and soft drinks, no hors d'oeuvres, and a buffet dinner of shrimp newburg (10 pounds shrimp for 40 persons), sliced roast beef (9 pounds roast beef, eye of the round), salad, bread and rolls.

The wedding cake serves as dessert and a round of champagne toasting the bridal couple completes the festivities.

Emily Post suggests you have friends help with the cooking and the serving too, for greatest savings. The wedding cake might be a gift and the champagne optional, she suggests.

The Better Homes & Gardens Cook Book offers menus for a wedding luncheon, a wedding buffet, supper, or luncheon, and for a wedding reception.

For an informal sit-down luncheon or noon breakfast following a morning wedding, serve Strawberry, Pineapple and Grapefruit in Frosted Glasses, Chicken à la King in Swedish Timbale Cases, Potato Balls in Parsley Butter, Corn Muffins, Tiny Hot Biscuits, Wedding Cake, Coffee and Butter-Almond Ice Cream.

The wedding supper or luncheon menu could offer Chicken Mousse and Cold Sliced Ham, Tomatoes Stuffed with Celery and Cucumbers, and Grooms Cakes, Coffee and Fruit Punch. Or this meal might be a buffet with big platters of cold sliced turkey, ham, and jellied tomato salad. Don't overlook ethnic specialties that members of your family or friends can prepare.

A stand-up wedding reception may provide trays of canapés and hors d'oeuvres, potato chips, stuffed olives, fruit punch, coffee,

ADDED DELIGHT

A Machus WEDDING CAKE

One of the highlights of the wedding celebration is the wedding cake, and Machus tops them all. A pictorial wedding cake book is an aid when selecting from the great variety of Machus with a variety of flavors available. At your request, we will add a touch of pastel color to match your wedding decor. We have an elegant selection of wedding cake ornaments available, or we will accommodate your florist's needs if you wish a floral top instead of the traditional bride and groom. And each Machus cake is just as delicious as it is beautiful.
