Franklin Players stage 'Pajama Game'

Franklin Players has had more success on Broadway than "The Pajama Game." Long performed with the stage in its original production. Written by George Abbott and Richard Roswell with music and lyrics by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, and based on Roswell's novel "77 Cents," the show tells of labor-management relations in a Midwest pajama factory. The business takes a good-hearted rib-bing in a delightful song and dance spoof. It will be put on by the Franklin Players. The hit musical has such show stoppers as "Hey There," "There Once Was a Man," "Steam Heat" and "Hemlock Holloway." The cast is headed by musical veterans Bud Mattich as the confident, but down-fallen superintendent, Sid and Sue Munks, the super-assisted union grievance committee head, Babe Peter Schmidt plays the hyperactive, colorful, sensitive financial man Hines.

Other members of a cast of more than 10 include Sally Kaufman, Bill Lucas, Ron Wheeler, Raymond Frank Cox, Bob McLean and Phil the Young.

"The Pajama Game" will be performed at West Bloomfield High School on Orchard Lake Road, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and April 2 and 3. Tickets may be obtained at the box office on the evenings of performance. For further information call 426-7715. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Sunday matinee, March 26, at 2 p.m. The show is being directed by Bobbi and Dick Sears, who are also active with Village Players and St. Dunstan's. Cast members come from the entire metropolitan Detroit area.
