

In The Pocket

By W.W. EDGAR

Most bowlers would be satisfied with being a member of a championship team in any league. Winning two would be a great thrill.

And while being a member of two title teams has been a real treat for Marge Kropacz—the Plymouth housewife who bowls in four leagues each week—she missed the biggest goal.

She was on the Sycamore Pracy team that won the title in Greenwood Lanes and she also was a member of the Sycamore Wash in the Cadillac Classic at Satellite Hill, the one big disappointment came when her Shirey's team of Plymouth.

missed the first division in the strong Bowleries League by a single point.

Don't say Peter Nathan, a regular bowler at Southfield Lanes, isn't emotionally spent after bowling a perfect game.

All you have to do is look at his scores. After opening with a 200 recently, he dropped back to 183 and then to 138 for a 611.

Imagine that, a 300 game and only a 411 series.

Another strange happening came when Cliff Kackathorn, who carries a 149 average, missed a perfect game on the same lanes when he left up the seven pin on his last ball for 200. And he followed that with a 127.

It was a different story with Rick Osborne who fashioned a 703 series with games of 257, 238 and 218.

A 15-YEAR OLD LAD, Curry Allen, showed the oldsters how to do it when he won 118 pins over his average in the Father & Son League at Brentwood, with games of 148, 202 and 187 for 615.

TWO NEW MENUS were admitted to the western suburb's 790 Club during the week. Buck Strawn, made it in the Junior House League at Merrifield.

MARY LOUI SCHEIDT had one of her best days when she paced the Ladies Classic at Plymouth Bowl with a 621 earned on games of 208, 204 and 209. How's that for consistency? Right behind her came Joyce Hamilton with a 387 that included a 224 game, while third place went to Lou Larson with a 348.

THERE WAS NOTHING MENI about the series Nancy Kuska robed in the Mini League at Westland carrying a 134 average she put together games of 182, 234 and 158 for 572.

AT PLAZA LANES Tom Harnelbach was the big gun of the week. He posted a 674 in the Ford Sheldon League to pace all rivals.

In the ladies league, Sally Hevly, a 119 average bowler, found the range for a 138.

JAN VANDER WIL, barely missed a 600 series to lead the Friday Classic at Farmington Lanes when she inserted a 214 in 200 and gained an eight pin margin over Betty Wencoster.

In the Mixed League, Don Krahn posted a 243 in 624 and Laurie Bierman showed the way in the junior girls loop with a 265.

SANDY BARRINGTON ran away with top honors in the Kings and Queens League at Garden Lane. She posted a 630 to best Mickey Gaglio, her nearest rival, by 84 pins. Mickey Santo landed third with 557.

In the men's section, Bill Elliott was top man with 684. Second place went to Dick Morris with 637 and Jim Gibson was third with a 628.

In the St. Louis League, it was Tom Berry all the way with a 683. Steve Filipowski trailed far back in second place with a 601.

The seniors had a great time of it at Garden Lane, too, when only four pins separated the top three bowlers. Ken Via was high with 694. Elmer Spurns was next with 691 and Cliff Larrh landed third with a 627 in 689.

LILLIAN BEATTIE, put a gallant finish to the season in the Lavonia Lanes Ladies Classic when she won two of three games in the second with a 175-210 and the third with 215-250. The other game went to Pat Coombe with 193-227.

Clarenceville diamondmen record 2 wins

It was both a struggle and a crunch last week for Clarenceville in a non-league baseball doubleheader with Dearborn Heights, Robbin's.

The Trojans earned a come-from-behind 3-2 victory in the opener that went eight innings, and the second game was called after five innings as Clarenceville on the long end of a 17-1 count.

The Trojans scored the winning run of the first game without hitting the ball out of the infield. Larry Laird was safe on an error. Jack Robinson sacrificed Laird to second. Laird stole third, then scored on a slow infield grounder hit by Jim Hill.

Tim McDowell, who pitched all eight innings, was the winning hurler.

In the second game, Clarenceville earned 17 runs out of 12 hits and 10 walks before the game was mercifully ended. Rick Canady was 3-3 at the plate, while Tim McDowell, Dennis Respetar and Scott McGaw all collected two hits. Hill was credited with the victory.

The Trojans now show an overall 1-3 record.
