'Celebration Sunday' set at Baptist church

In celebration of the 20th anniversary of the church, Rev. Stan Neel's fifth anniversary as pastor and the nation's bicentennial, North Farmington Baptist Church has designated May 22 as "Celebration Sunday."

In addition to the homecoming for past church members, the Rev. Robert G. Middleton of the First Baptist Church of Birmingham will be guest minister for the 10 a.m. service.

Dr. Middleton has served congregations in Northfield, Ill., Haddonfield, N.J., Kansas City, Mo., and Chicago, Ill. He has served on the board of trustees of Christian Century Foundation, as president of the board of directors of the National Council of Churches, as contributing editor to "The Christian Ministry," and author of "Tensions in Modern Faith" and "Privilege and Burden."

At 7 p.m. the Kendellarks will present a special concert to help celebrate the church's birthday. The Kendellarks is a vocal and instrumental group which performs for a variety of area organizations each year.

The public is invited to share in "Celebra-
