

Cabaret Setting For Concert

Gaiety will be the order of the evening at 8 p.m. June 7 when Farmington Junior High School holds its first cabaret concert in the school gymnasium.

Guests may reserve cabaret tables at which to enjoy popcorn and pop, and the music by calling Paul Barber, musical director, at 476-7980. Tables are $3 each, unreserved seats 75 cents each. The tickets will be in the shape of flowers and flower decorations will fill the gym. Varsity band members will wait table.

The concert will feature the concert band and orchestra and the 100-voice school choir directed by Pat McCaffrey.

The band will play such numbers as "Plink, Plank Plink," "Jazz Legato," "Sandpaper Ballet," "Mission Impossible," "Up, Up and Away," "Sound of Music" and "Plink Panther."

Choir numbers include "Aragonsu," "Come On In," "Agaricus," "California My Way" and "Sounds of Silence."

Festival Trims Available

Farmington Board of Commerce announces that it has available to members the official Founders Festival decorations.

The decorations are the stars and stripes bunting display easily adaptable to any store or business front. The overall size is 13 feet by eight feet (approximately).

The price is $20 per set and orders must be accompanied by payment and received by the board by June 15.

Artists Elect New Officers

Farmington Artists Club has elected officers for 1969-70.

They include Mrs. Beverly Foss, two-year term as president; Mrs. Dorothy Clark, vice president; Mrs. Eleanor Melmoth, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Joan Kusinski, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Jean Weber, recording secretary.

LEARNING BRAILLE -- A group of 20 ladies from Nardin Park Methodist Church is sponsoring a course in the operation of a Braille typewriter (shown above). The ladies are anxious to learn but need a Braille writer for the course. To raise funds, a silent auction will be held June 6 at the Nardin Park Church near 11 Mile and Middle Belt.

Many View Exhibit

Farmington Artists Club entertained a near record crowd and chalked up near record sales at its recent annual Spring Sale and Exhibit in the Farmington Masonic Temple. The show featured 112 entries and 54 artists.

The gallery award went to Mrs. Wanda Northen. Painting division awards were won by Allen Mrook, first; Mrs. Ann Ward, second; and Mrs. Annetta Lind, third.

Awards in the acrylic-mixed media division were won by Mrs. Allie Wilson, first; Mrs. Alice Nickols, second; and Mrs. Dorothy Clark, third.

Receiving honorable mention were Eileen Schenkel, Joanne Leavy, Edee Joppick, Eleanor Melmoth, Lynn Jenks and Jean Burger.

Voted most popular artists by visiting viewers were Marie Tuthill, John Leonetti, Joseph Gach, Allen Mrook and Joyce King.

Prizes were donated by Livonia Custom Picture Framing, Executive Office Supply and General Copy Center and Office Supply.

Cyclist, 74, Killed

Holiday weekends traditionally mean more work for police and over the Memorial Day weekend Farmington area police had to answer calls on 12 accidents and six family fights.

into a neighbors's house.

Another motorcyclist, 17-year-old Richard Yash, also died over the weekend from head injuries suffered in a Wednesday crash at Orchard Lake and Ajama.

A 74-year-old motorcyclist died in one of the accidents, Donald Pounds of 21414 Woodington lost control of his cycle Sunday night while driving in front of his house and crashed

Farmington Township police are still investigating the Nash accident. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Nash, of 32555 Raphael.
