

Madonna welcomes new president

"I consider the appointment both a great honor and challenge," said Sister Mary Franceline following her appointment as president of Madonna College, Livonia.

"It is an honor to serve God and his people through an institution of higher learning which fosters intellectual, humanistic and spiritual growth. And it is a challenge to continue strengthening and deviloping various programs and activities Madonna is noted for within the community."

Sister Franceline, who will take her post August 15, said, "I look forward to working with Madonna's greatest possessions, a truly dedicated group of administrators, faculty and students, and I thank the members of the board of trustees for their support."

She will succeed Sister Mary Danatha, who has been the Livonia institution's chief administrator since 1968. Taking Sister Franceline's place as academic dean is Sister Mary Damascene, currently pro-essor of English at Madonna.

Mother Mary Columba, spiritual supervisor of the Felician order and president of the corporate board which operates the college, made the announcement of the resignation of Sister Danatha, as well as that of Sister Mary Laurna, vice president for planning and development.

Acknowledging the resignations of Sister

Danatha and Sister Laurna, Mother

Mary Columba praised them for "much exertion, planning, application, and vision needed to attain the tremendous strides that were taken especially in the last few years."

The growth of the student population, accreditations, innovative programs, numerous grants and various adaptations and renovation of the building, certainly added to a remarkable development," she said.

The new president is a candidate for a doctorate in higher education at Wayne State University. A 1963 graduate from Madonna, she has also served as an administrative assistant to the president.

Topics involve communication

Two forums concerned with communication are scheduled in May and June by Schenkler College, Livonia. "I'm On

It" and "How About You?" will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 25. It's subject is transactional analysis and will be coordinated by Dr. Carl Schenkler and Shirley Harrison. Both hold degrees in master's of social work and belong to the academy of certified social workers of the national association of social workers.

The forum will provide an overview of transactional analysis. It's a proper for those interested in personal growth and shops for understanding human relationships.

An afternoon forum titled "Mother and Child Communications" is scheduled at 1 p.m. Tuesday, June 7. Mrs. Pratchett will present her theory that parents can learn to talk with rather than at their children.

Participants will practice exercises that will help them communicate more effectively with their children.

Both forums will meet in room 208 of the liberal arts building. There is no charge and registration is not necessary.

Two graduate with honors

Among the 329 men and women who received degrees this month from Madonna College, Livonia, were two local women.

Kay A. Gauthier of Farmington received honors for academic achievement and a grade point average of 3.7.

Beverly Weems of Farmington Hills received honors for a grade point no lower than 3.5.

Sister Mary Danatha, college president conferred the degrees. Cardinal John Darden presented the diplomas and gave the commencement address.

Curtis included in honors meeting

Kevin Curtis, a Farmington High School graduate was one of the students honored at the Spring Honors Assembly at 1811

State College.

Curtis, a sophomore is the son of Dr. and

Mrs. Walter Albers, 2119 Centerfarm

Northville.

The assembly is planned each year to honor students for exceptional achievements in scholarship, leadership and service.
