Musical to open season

Highly acclaimed by New York drama critics as "a superb masterpiece," "Jesus Christ Superstar" the rock-opera musical will open this year's Michigan Repertory season.

This brilliant musical will play the University of Michigan's Power Center for the Performing Arts for one week, beginning Monday, July 5, through Saturday, July 18. Performance time will be 8 p.m. each evening and 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday, July 18. Through the use of "dynamic rock music," "Superstar" will reveal the last seven days of Christ's life as seen through the eyes of Judas. Judas sees Christ that his movement is based solely on visions of heaven and that this revolutionary theme has outraged the high priests. The audience will relive such moments as the Friday at Bethany, the crowd's "Hosanna" on Palm Sunday, "The Last Supper" and the final moments as Christ is sentenced to death "for the sake of the nation."

"Superstar" noted for its record breaking sales prior to its Broadway opening, overflows with such electrifying tunes as Mary Magdalene's "Everything's Alright," "I Don't Know How to Love Him" and its theme song "Superstar."

Season subscriptions for this musical and the other three productions (Shaw's "Heartbreak House," Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler," and Kaufman and Hart's "Once in a Lifetime") being performed by the Repertory this summer, are currently on sale by mail through June 28.

Individual shows will go on sale at the Power Center Box Office beginning June 28. The box office hours are Monday-Friday from 12:30-5 p.m. Tickets will also be available through Hudson stores, Central Travel and Ticket, Toledo beginning June 28.
