College Campus on Channel 7, Sunday, June 1

Campus un-rest has become a daily occurrence. From the Berkley campus of the University of California to Harvard Yard, schools across the nation have felt the sting of disorder and chaos as militant students turned quadrangles to battlefields, dormitories to besieged fortresses.

In a special half-hour color program to be seen Sunday, June 1 at 2:30 p.m. on Channel 7 a different view of campus life will be seen.

TV Today

by DOUG' RIDLEY

Today, bowlers in the U.S. alone spend $2.5 million a year on this sport, offered in roughly 10,500 establishments throughout the 50 states. Growing interest led to the organization in 1958 of the Professional Bowlers Association. Most of the pros ascribe the growth to television, which they feel, helped spread the bowling gospel about the land. They have come a long piece on TV, they feel since the presentation of such early fixtures as Jackpot Bowling and Make That Spare, shows involving fast cash.

And for the grandest selection of Magnavox televisions and stereos, be sure to come to BEECH TELEVISION, 26158 W. Six Mile Road, Detroit 40, KE 3-2626.
