Stephanie Miquelon Weds Craig Eiler

Stephanie Cyr Miquelon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cyr Miquelon of Livonia, and Craig Allen Eiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Eiler of Westland, were married Friday, May 23, in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Westland.

The evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Sears of St. Michael's and the Rev. Gareth Baker, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church in Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Shades of apricot and pink formed the wedding setting.

Candles in those shades and tall vases with pink dragons and camellias in apricot, orange and red decorated the altar to which the bride was escorted by her father.

She wore a white silk ottoman gown fashioned along medieval lines. It had a full gathered waist, deep neckline, full bishop sleeves and ribbed pointed lace on the bodice, and she wore a lace mantilla veil and carried a period bouquet of baby's breath, bouvardia and son roses.

preceding her were five attendants in apricot print batiste gowns, also featuring the bishop sleeves and deep neckline of the medieval period. Hotpink velvet ribbons girded the waists, and they carried baby's breath and sweetbriar roses in apricot, pale pink, hot pink and scarlet.

The bride's college roommates, Ingred Reiter of Toledo, who are now in bonds, and the bridesmaids were Michele and Melanie Miquelon, sisters of the bride, Patti Lorion and Sue Tonyan.

Mrs. Miquelon's gown was jade green silk embroidered in gold filigree, and Mrs. Eiler wore pale pink coat and dress ensemble with silver embroidery.

The apricot and pink color scheme also was carried out at Botsford Inn, where the bridal couple and their parents received guests immediately after the ceremony.

Crossing between intersections was responsible for 40 per cent of the pedestrian deaths in 1968.

OU Offers Short Courses In Languages

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY'S SUMMER CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM, scheduled to run from June 2 to July 3, includes short courses in 18 languages.

Travelers and students interested in honing up on travel or next fall's language requirements should contact Oakland University's Division of Continuing Education, Rochester, Mich., 48065, or telephone 338-7211, Ext. 2171.

Whether you're in the "jet set" or not, vacation travel is given much more fun when you can speak the language barrier.

Spanish, French and Italian are fairly easy to grasp and represent the majority of languages needed for a tour of Europe. In fact, some proficiency in any of the three should help you get along almost anywhere on the continent.

Drivers under 25 years of age account for only one-fifth of America's drivers, but were involved in one-third of all fatal highway crashes in 1968, according to an annual report.
