

Records could fall in Observerland Relays

By DOUG FUNKE

With a host of state-ranked trackmen competing this Saturday in the seventh annual Observerland Relays, it seems only logical to conclude several meet records could be shattered.

That's the opinion of Redford Union coach John Mackenzie, who is directing the meet, scheduled for Hilbert Jr. High, 2640 Puritan between Five and Six Mile.

"I think we'll see some of the best performances ever," said Mackenzie. "I wouldn't be surprised to see four of the five field event records fall and two or three running events, if the weather cooperates."

The weather is the key because the track at Hilbert is cinder and generally not as fast as asphalt or tartan surfaces.

Livonia Churchill, which has won or shared the title three times (and is defending champion), again rates as the overwhelming favorite of area coaches.

However, the coaches add that they expect a race to the finish.

Steve Strauch, coach at Redford Elshop Borgess underlined the competitive nature of the relays. "It's just going to be a good meet. A lot of good teams are going to be there and anything can happen."

Churchill, Livonia Franklin, Livonia Stevenson, Borgess and a young North Farmington squad will probably battle it out for the championship, with RU looming as an outside threat depending on how well it does in the field events.

Other challengers include Garden City West and East, Redford Thur-ton, Redford Union, Plymouth Canton and Salem, Farmington, Farmington Harrison, Southfield-Lathrup, Livonia Bentley and Northville.

Many outstanding athletes will showcase their talents for the crowd, which is expected to number a couple thousand.

Churchill's Dave Kielty and Kevin

Chapel are among the premier discus throwers and high jumpers, respectively, in the state.

Bob Bobits and brother Paul, from RU, both sparkle in the pole vault, while Ron Cwik and Nick Cipriano, from Borgess, can compete with the best in the hurdles and sprints.

Franklin, like Churchill, has a balanced reserve of talent headed by sprinters Dave Bowen and Phil Yushasz.

Several outstanding middle-distance runners, such as Bill Rowley, from Stevenson, Mike Miller, from Farmington, Walt White, Salem, and Mark Boyd, Garden City West, will also clash.

The lengthier relays will feature the likes of Tobin Jones, Churchill, Kurt Reynolds, Thurston, Hugh Leidley and Stu Glatfelter, Farmington, Bill Wilkin, Stevenson, and Jeff Perrine, Garden City East.

Other premier trackmen expected to participate are Craig Fueelling, Bentley, Jeff Goforth, Southfield-Lathrup, Mike Bowden, Mark Evans and Charlie Rogers, all from Harrison. Kevin Hansen, Farmington, and Mike Stone, from Salem.

"Nobody's going to run away with the championship," said Churchill coach Fred Perrine.

Competition begins at 2 p.m. with the pole vault, which will likely continue well into the meet. The discus and shot put get underway at 3 p.m., the high jump at 3:30 p.m. and the long jump at 4 p.m.

The running events will begin at 7 p.m. with the four-mile relay, followed by the 800-yard relay, two-mile relay, distance-mile relay, sprint-medley relay, shuttle-hurdle relay, 440-yard relay and mile relay.

Scoring is based on a 5-4-3-2-1 point system. An individual may participate in a maximum of four events.

Tickets at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students, will be available at the gate.

Raiders rip Thurston

Coach Jerry Maxwell's North Farmington baseball team got an unexpected boost this spring when Barry Balbes transferred to North from Oak Park.

Balbes, a junior left-handed pitcher, lifted his won-lost record to 3-0 by pitching a five-hitter to help North Farmington whip Thurston, 17-2, last Monday afternoon in a Northwest Suburban League game on North's diamond. He struck out five and walked three.

"Balbes has excellent control with a good curve ball," said Maxwell, whose team has a 7-3 overall mark to go with a 2-2 record in the NSL. "He keeps the batters off balance. He changes speeds very nicely."

North Farmington, which had dropped a 12-11 decision to Thurston earlier this spring, pounded out 16 hits last Monday. Mike Thomas was the big stick with three hits, including a grand-slam homer, and six runs batted in. Teammate Jim Russell went three for four and knocked in three runs, and Gus Patek drove in two runs with two hits in five trips.

On April 29, Garden City East needed eight innings to edge North, 2-1. Thomas, the losing pitcher, went all the way, giving up nine hits, striking out six and walking two. North led 1-0, going into the seventh inning.

North Farmington plays on Friday at Livonia Franklin. The NSL contest begins at 4 p.m.

FARMINGTON-STEVENSON
Farmington High's baseball team passed a big test last Monday when it defeated Livonia Stevenson, 5-1, in an Inter Lakes League game at Farmington. The win lifted the Falcons to 4-3 overall and 1-1 in the ILL.

Stevenson, which has been the class of the ILL in recent years, got only five hits off Farmington pitcher Kevin Delp, a junior righthander who fanned eight and walked three.

Farmington had nine hits, including a 400-foot, two-run homer by Randy Meyer in the third inning. Leadoff batter Tom O'Malley, a junior, went two for three at the plate and scored a run. Mark Murray had two hits in three trips and scored a run.

"We finally got our bats ringing," said Farmington coach Rich Roy, whose team plays on Friday at home against Milford Lakeland, an ILL foe, at 4 p.m.

HARRISON-NORTHVILLE
Farmington Harrison's baseball team has earned a nickname — The Come-From-Behind-Kids — and last Monday's game against Northville shows why.

For the third-straight game, Harrison came from behind with some big runs to win the Western Six League contest, 4-3, at home.

Northville was leading, 3-1, going into the seventh inning, but Harrison rallied for three runs with Al Shay knocking in the winner with a single. Pat Golich led off the inning with a double, and Kevin Collar was safe on an error with Golich scoring. Then Brett Homovec doubled to left, scoring Collar to tie the game at three all.

Win Dahm was safe on an error, and Homovec took third. Shay then delivered his game-winning single. Harrison had eight hits to support winning pitcher Fred Blackmer, who went the distance, allowing two earned runs, four hits. He struck out two and walked four in lifting his pitching record to 1-1.

Harrison, now 4-2 overall and 3-0 in the WSL, plays Thursday at home in a doubleheader against Redford Union. The first game begins at 3 p.m.

North blanks Thurston

Harrison netters fall

By TOM BAER

Farmington Harrison and Northville High have developed an intense tennis rivalry in the Western Six League in recent years.

Last season, Harrison won the league meet, but finished second in the final standings because it lost two dual meets to Northville, which won the league title. The rivalry continued this season as Northville and Harrison had their first encounter last Monday on Harrison's courts.

Harrison won three of the first four matches, but Northville won the meet, 4-3. Northville won No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles, the key matches. The loss put Harrison at 3-1 overall and 2-1 in the WSL.

In other tennis last Monday, North Farmington blanked Thurston, 7-6, in the Northwest Suburban League, and Livonia Stevenson bested Farmington High, 7-0, in the Inter Lakes League.

In the Northville-Harrison meet, No. 1 singles was interesting with Harrison's Danny Green dropping a 6-3, 6-3 decision to Doug Castillo. In No. 4 singles, Northville's Charlie Whiteside defeated Barry Leshman in three sets, 6-3, 6-6, 6-4.

Northville's No. 2 doubles team of John Dyer and Jeff Hodge topped John Bowlick and Chuck Miller, 6-2, 6-2. Harrison won No. 2 singles when Bob Malit beat Greg McFadden, 6-0, 6-3.

"I thought we could take Northville," said Harrison coach Bernie Goldstein. "I still think we can take them the next time around (May 18 at Northville). For one thing, Barry Leshman was playing sore. He fractured his thumb when he was playing his first match in a week."

COACH NORM Staniszewski's North Farmington squad had little competition against Thurston. The Raiders have a 1-1 NSL record.

In No. 1 singles, North's David Epstein, who has lost only one game so far, defeated Kevin Kohls, 6-1, 6-0. North's Lahn Johansson, a foreign-exchange student from Sweden, won the No. 2 singles match by beating Martin Schmidt, 6-3, 6-0.

No. 1 doubles went three sets. The North team of Bob Schaffer and Rick Karoub downed Bill Morris and Paul Brown, 6-7, 6-1, 7-6.

Farmington High is 1-1 in the ILL and 1-4 overall after its loss to Stevenson last Monday.

Stevenson's Kevin Green defeated Keith Farnie, 6-1, 6-2, in No. 1 singles. In No. 1 doubles, Steve Garver and Larry DeFiore topped Farmington's Jeremy Dando and Steve Krohn, 6-3, 7-5.

Earlier, Farmington defeated Waterford Township, 6-1, in an ILL meet at Township. Farmington won every match except for No. 1 singles where Paul Hickey stopped Farnie, 7-5, 6-2.

Dando and Krohn, playing at No. 1 doubles, beat Bob Garver and Ken Griffin, 6-0, 6-1. Farmington's No. 3 doubles team of Roman Kukurba and Doug Williams posted a three-set victory over Dave Harmon and Ron Arwald, 5-7, 6-1, 7-5.

On Friday, Harrison has a home meet against non-league Livonia Bentley at 4 p.m. Farmington plays ILL foe, Milford Lakeland at home on Friday.
