Falcon trackmen win

Farmington relay comes through

By TOM BAER

Farmington High needed a first place from its mile relay in its Inter Lakes League track meet against Livonia Stevenson last Thursday. And for a change, Farmington's last relay came through to help the Falcons down Stevenson, 83-75.

Farmington led, 78-75, going into the meet's final event, the mile relay. Farmington's relay (Mark McDonald, Mark Bechard, Greg Lahr and Stuart Galtfelter) won in 3:34.1 to ensure the victory, its second against one loss in league competition.

"This is the third time this season that one of our meets has come down to the last relay," said Farmington coach Gerald Young, whose team has a 5-4 overall record. "The other two times, our mile relay finished second, and we ended up losing the meet by a handful of points.

"But this time our relay did a good job. They ran their fastest time of the season."

Farmington won all five field events. Rick McKibben posted victories in the long jump (18-11½) and the high jump (6-1). Kevin Hansen won the shot put (53-10) and the discus (130-9½), and Tracy Curtis won the pole vault (12-6).

Farmington' hurdler Mike Danna won the 330-yard lows in :40.9, and then finished second in the 120 highs a shade behind Stevenson's Niemchek. The second-place finish marked the first time this season that Danna has failed to win the highs in a dual meet.

IN OTHER meets last Thursday, Livonia Churchill left little doubt about where the strength lies in the Western Six League. Churchill clobbered Farmington Harrison, 102-56, in a WSL meet at Harrison. The loss put Harrison at 4-4 overall and 0-2 in the league.

"Churchill is loaded," said Harrison assistant coach Chris Brown. "They're really deep. They came over here with three busloads of kids."

Harrison won six events. John Hileman and Tom Reynolds each won two events. Hileman won the 330 lows in :42.1 and the 440 dash in :54.4. Reynolds took the sprints, winning the 100 dash in :11.0 and the 220 in :24.1. Jeff Thorne won the long jump at 20-7¾, and Jim Stojek won the 120 highs in :16.5.

Livonia Franklin defeated North Farmington, 101-47, in the Northwest Suburban League. North has a 3-3 overall record to go with a 1-1 record in the NSL.

North Farmington senior Brad Miller has been running some fast hurdles races recently. Against Franklin, he won the 330 lows in :39.0 and the 120 highs in :15.1. Teammate Robb Henderhan, a sophomore, won the high jump at 6-1. North's 880 relay (Tim Quinn, Art Doran, Jeff Cohen and Mike Miller) won in 1:33.5.

Earlier last week, Farmington High won the annual city tri-meet, scoring 74½ points. North Farmington was second with 47½, and Harrison was third with 45.

Farmington won seven of the 16 events. Harold Rutial won the two-mile run in 9:45.5 and Danna took the high hurdles in :14.9. North's Brad Miller won the low hurdles in :39.2, and Harrison's John Cable won the 880 in 2:03.1.

North Farmington runs next on Tuesday (May 10) at home against Waterford Mott. On Thursday (May 12), Harrison runs at Walled Lake Western, and Farmington runs at Walled Lake Central. All meets begin at 4 p.m.

Falcon '9' wins

Steve Russell and Craig Misch combined to pitch a one-hitter and help Farmington High dominate Southfield-Lathrup, 8-1, last week in a non-league baseball game at Lathrup. The victory lifted Farmington to 5-3 overall. Lathrup fell to 2-6.

Russell started the game and worked four innings, allowing one hit, striking out one and walking three. Misch finished up, pitching no-hit baseball for the final three innings. He struck out none and walked three. Lathrup failed to hit a ball out of the infield.

Farmington, which had 13 hits, scored three runs in the sixth inning. With one out, Marty Bona singled, and Bill Philip bunted for a base hit. Tim O'Malley then sacrificed the runners to second and third. Randy Meier then singled home Bona, and Rob Patrick doubled home Philip and Meier.

Patrick went three for five and knocked in two runs, and Bona went three for three and scored two runs. Meier drove in two runs with two hits in four trips to the plate.

Lathrup scored its run in the third. Bruce Abramson walked, Paul Konapacke grounded to third. Farmington's Dick Radatz threw wild, allowing Abramson to score.

Lathrup plays next on Monday (May 9) at Birmingham Groves. The Metro Suburban Association game begins at 4 p.m. Farmington returns to Inter Lakes League play on Monday with a 4 p.m. game at Pontiac Northern.
