

'Red Shoes' opens classic film series

The classic film musical "The Red Shoes" has opened at the Kingswood Will-O-Way Theatre, 200 Woodward at Square Lake Road, Bloomfield Township.

Nightly performances are at 7:25 and 9:25 p.m., Wednesday matinee at 1 p.m., and continuous Saturday and Sunday matinees from 2:05 p.m.

Bosley Crowther commenting in The New York Times of Oct. 22, 1948, reviewed "The Red Shoes" as follows:

"There has never been a picture in which the ballet and its special, magic world have been so beautifully presented as in the British film, "The Red Shoes." The story is about an English girl who devotes herself to a famous ballet company, becomes its star and then falls in love. It is a symbolic realization of the theme of the principal ballet, which is based on Hans Christian Anderson's fable of the little girl who is bewitched by her red dancing shoes.

"As the leading ballerina and the romantic heroine of the film, Mora Shearer is amazingly accomplished and full of a warm and radiant charm. Leonide Massine is wonderfully comic in a completely fantastic style as Miss Shearer's dancing partner and ballet master, and Maestro

"The Red Shoes" will run at the Kingswood Will-O-Way Theatre in Bloomfield Hills for one week only as part of the theater's new policy of presenting artistic, quality entertainment for the entire family. Ballet teachers and many make reservations for dance students at group rates by calling 338-7111.

Garage sale slated

A citywide garage sale and flea market will be held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Birmingham Ice Arena.

IT'S TEMPTING

Dinner at Eden Glen... more than a meal. Experience one of our specialty dishes for the sheer entertainment of eating. A rare Beef Wellington, and a salad bar

What's not just a garden variety display of greens. And after dinner, stay for a little night music and dancing to the Joe Grande trio. And an Irish coffee nightcap perhaps?
