

They'll be back this year for more. And their performance will again be climaxed by a fireworks display on the festival grounds on a corner of the Oakland University campus.

Since the Fourth falls on Monday, Up with People and the festival fireworks will be the Sunday evening pops feature of the weekend, beginning at 7 p.m.

THURSDAY EVENING'S symphonic concert finds Pianist Mischa Dichter as guest soloist with Music Director Aldo Ceccato and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The evening's selections will be Rosini's "La Gazza Ladra," Schumann's Piano Concerto in A Minor, and Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 in A.

THE REVOLUTIONARY TED'S.

There was once a time when our forefathers had no freedom of choice. Hitler set men going to one of a few places where food was served. Then came Ted's Old Town Inn, Revolutionary! The wonderful system that we know today was born.

Today we recognize the efforts of those who had the vision to give us great restaurants, four unique dining rooms, top entertainers and a pretty fine rusticall America needs T-e-d's. It's a matter of our own independence.
