

Rapid reading class to start

The Farmington Community Center will offer the Achieving Greater Proficiency (AGP) Rapid Reading Course in its summer program. Classes will begin June 28 and July 19. Registrations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis until classloads are full.

The AGP course is presently being taught in universities across the country, design by Ben Johnson, a professor who is recognized as one of the nation's leading authorities on learning skills.

The class is taught in three two-hour segments, with meetings once a week for three weeks.

Utilizing the latest learning techniques and rapid reading principles, the course enables participants to develop optimum personal reading skills.

The program lays the foundation for the individual to further pursue efficiency and speed on an independent basis.

The course stresses an increase in speed without loss of comprehension. One of its unique features is that the reader learns to choose the speed appropriate to the type of material being read.

Mail off

for July 4

Next week's holiday has done what snow or hail or dark of night has never done—stop the mail.

There will be no mail delivery or window service on Independence Day, July 4, announced Postmaster Kenneth B. Harris. Holiday collection schedules will be provided along with special delivery service, he added.

Incarnation church greets new pastor

The Lutheran Church of the Incarnation has just installed Jeff Harry as its new pastor. The church is located at 30553 Ten Mile, Farmington.

Pastor Harry's previous position was with St. Phillip's Workers in Detroit, where he was an assistant to pastor William G. Moldwin. That was his first assignment after finishing training at Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago in 1975.

Part of his education was spent as a chaplain for the Wisconsin School for Boys. He was a volunteer chaplain for Wayne County Jail and has served as secretary for the Franklin Community Council.

He is presently serving as a board member of the House of the Carpenter, Child and Family Center, and Pelham Community Services.

Pastor Harry is an avid fan of the Detroit Tigers. He is a distance runner, a guts frisbee aficionado, a singer and guitar player.
