

Lazy Lunchtime In The Park

Doctor, lawyer or Indian Chief . . . it doesn't matter what occupation because just about everyone ends up in the park.

Once the sun begins to shine the restaurants do a booming business in carryout orders as the working force heads for the outdoors on their lunch hour.

Eating isn't the only pastime. Baseball, golf and fishing are also popular.

We also found girl watchers, but that's an activity not strictly confined to the parks during lunchtime.

The pictures, which were all taken in area parks over a two week period, speak for themselves.

IT'S SPRING along the Edward Hines Parkway.

REDFORD TOWNSHIP'S Lola Park is a good spot to get to know each other . . .

FORE along Edward Hines Drive.

THIS PICKUP ballgame has a fan.

A PEACEFUL lunch alongside the stream.

KELLOGG PARK in Plymouth is a good spot to do some last-minute cramming during lunchtime.
