

Elks to roast big ox again

Elks meet ox: Once again, the Elks will take knives in hand to skewer and carve that ox which so many Founders Festival participants have found so tasty through the years.

Jaycee's rodeo adds a new twist

Saddle up folks and get ready for a rip-roarin' time at this year's Farmington Area Jaycee World Championship Rodeo. The western festivities will begin on July 21 with the arrival of the rodeo livestock on location at the rodeo site at Twelve Mile and Farmington roads.

As in past years, rodeo performances by the J-Bar-J Rodeo will be at 8 p.m. on July 22 and at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on July 23, while the new attraction, the Four Wheel Drive Weight Pull, will be held at 11 a.m. on July 24.

Tickets for the rodeo are available in advance from the Farmington Area Jaycee, the Farmington Chamber of Commerce, the Mower Shop, Bosco's Wine and Deli, the Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington, T.L. Printing, Farmington Hardware, Kwikee Duplicating or Blakeney's Ranch House.

Advance tickets are $2.75 for adults, $1.75 for persons between the ages of 12-17 years-old and $1 for persons under the age of 12.

Tickets for the Four Wheel Drive Weight Pull, featuring the Wolverine 4-Wheelers may also be obtained in advance of any of the ticket locations.

Tickets for the weight pull are $2 for general admission and $1.50 for a pit pass. At the gate these tickets will sell for $2.50 and $1.50, respectively.

Through numerous projects, the Farmington Area Jaycees annually raise large sums to benefit their community. Their International Rodeo Association sanctioned world championship rodeo held each year during the festival is one of the Jaycees major fund raising activities.

THIS YEAR the Jaycees have expanded the rodeo weekend with a new concept—Heels and Wheels. In addition to the three rodeo performances, the Heels and Wheels weekend will feature the weight pull, a raffle and celebrity events with local media personalities competing for the Farmington Cup. Jo-Jo Shutt, CKLW's traffic spy in the sky, will be the honorary rodeo queen.

The weight pull with trucks and tractors is a tradition in the south and midwest. The goal is to pull a steel loaded with lead weights from a standing start to the finish line 300 feet away. The trucks are in two classes: 5,500 and 6,500 pounds.

On Friday morning, July 22, at 10:30 a.m. at the rodeo site, radio, television and newspaper personalities will compete in rodeo and weight pull events, including a modified weight transfer pull with watermelons.

OTHER CELEBRITY events include barrel racing, hooper hustle, calf roping and a celebrity tug-of-war. Prizes for the celebrity events in competition for the Farmington Cup are cash donations in the amount of $100, $50 and $25 to the first, second and third place celebrity team's favorite charity.

Among the traditional events in this year's rodeo are calf roping, bull-riding, saddle bronc, barrel racing and bronc riding. Entrants will be competing for International Rodeo Association points.

The Heels and Wheels proceeds will be used for senior citizen and physically handicapped facilities in the Farmington area. The $1 donation buys three tickets. First prize is a jeep renegade go-cart. Second prize is a $100 gift certificate from the Scott Colburn Saddlery and third through fifth prizes are $75, $50 and $25 gift certificates from Colburns.
