Human rights win is encouraging sign

Encouraging news from the USSR this week came to Congressman William M. Brothead (D-17th District) when he learned that permission had been granted to Eugene and Sophia Reinberg to leave the Soviet Union. The Reinberg's had requested to leave the country and join their son in Israel.

Reinberg to leave the Soviet Union. The Reinberg's had requested to leave the country and join their son in farael.

Brodham has been a leader in focusing Congressional attention on the respective of the country and stending the USSR's emigration policies. He has been working on the Reinberg case for the past year, and learned of their problem when their son, Yuri, visited his Washington office last summer.

The elder Reinberg has a Ph.D in physics and has worked for 28 years and the second of the sec lated into Russian by the Library of Congress.

Brodhead said that despite the fact replies from the Russians are seldom received, he believes they pay atten-tion when they hear from members of Congress.

emigration policies or whether these cases are merely coincidental. Nevertheless, I intend to continue to apply as much pressure as possible for a policy of free emigration."
