Girls Win Bonuses In Music

Over 13 years ago, before Farmington's school music program had strung instruments, the parents organized weekly lessons for interested students.

Students learned violin, bass fiddle, etc. In turn they paid a small fee for the "teacher-parents."

The money went into a fund, which built to $170 over the years.

Now the money is going to be split among three girls, who were judged outstanding by Miss Marjorie Mowatt, school music director. The girls are Carolyn Mekjian, Joan Neuenswander and Arlayne Olson. Carolyn, a ninth-grader at Farmington High, has been accepted for the all-state orchestra at Interlochen and will attend Interlochen's music camp this summer. Joan and Arlayne are both 10th-graders at North Farmington. Joan will study three weeks this summer at Michigan State University. Arlayne is currently supplementing her studies with lessons from cellist Thaddeus Markiewicz of the Detroit Symphony.

Lions Give $200 To Leader Dogs

The Farmington Township Lions Club has donated $200 to Leader Dog Foundation in memory of the late Harry Cripps who was a Lions member while he was manager of Montgomery Wards appliance store.

President Joseph Hebda presented the check June 10 to Dr. W.M. O'Brien of Rochester who is on the governing board of the Leader Dogs of Michigan.

THE GIFT was the second the Lions have given this year. Earlier a $500 donation was given in the memory of Edward Stauch, longtime barber and Farmington resident who was a Lion for over 20 years.

"Through the generosity of the Farmington area residents," said Hebda, "we have been able to purchase glasses and/or examinations for 75 children and adults who due to unfortunate circumstances were in need of assistance and provided through governmental agencies."

Dr. O'Brien officiated at the meeting as installing officer for the club's new slate of officers.

OFFICERS for the coming year are: Charles Corvelli, president; George Nauman, first vice president; Walter Kesselring, second vice president; Leonard Milross, third vice president; John Gabel, secretary; Kenneth Corns, treasurer; Robert Melvin, tall twister; Jack Watkins, lion tamer; and Wade Dickerson and Gerald Konke, directors.

Another feature of the meeting was a talk on drug abuse given by Detective Sgt. Earl Tesigian, of the Farmington Township Police Department.
