

Students Select Shuler

Charles L. Shuler, of 36028 Lyman, Farmington, an assistant professor in communications and humanities at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College, has been voted a special award as an outstanding faculty member by students at the school. Approximately 4,000 fall and winter students were asked to participate in selecting eight outstanding faculty members on the basis of availability to students; knowledge and presentation of course material; and attitude toward job and students. The students also selected the student newspaper, "The Orchard Ridge Recorder," as the most outstanding student organization.

TIME TO GO Outdoors

With a

CHARM GLOW

Gas Yard Lamp and Gas Grill

Extend your hours of summer fun with a gas yard lamp. A gas lamp lends a soft glow to patio or yard, repels insects, makes walkways safer, and discourages prowlers. Made of cast aluminum with black finish, the gas lamps are topped by graceful eagle finial. "Snug-Fit" windows allow complete cleaning without a tool.

For those who love the outdoors and gracious patio living, the gas grill is the modern way to enjoy outdoor cooking at its best. This new method of barbecue cooking gives the flavor of charcoal without the mess and fuss. Gas offers a full range of heat from high to low. Cast aluminum construction makes the gas grill virtually weatherproof.
