The purpose of a pre-emptive bid is to keep the opponents from finding a game or possibly a slam. The use of suit openings of two, other than clubs, as a preemptive bid is used in most modern American systems.

Most authorities require a six-card suit for a weak two-bid and a range of 6:12 high card points. West's bid does not quite meet text-book requirements but she was vulnerable and felt her spade suit was not good enough to bid three.

Space sun was not good compared three.

The hand in the diagram was dealt at a local duplicate game. Dr. and Mrs. Morris Kessler. Groy, held Mrs. Morris Kessler. Groy, and the hand opponent pre-mpted in spates, leading the property of the one was missing settled for the small slam. The Kesslers received a top on the board, for they were the only pair to bid and make a slam.
