Mrs. James McDevitt

Irene C. Brule and James Joseph McDevitt were wed Aug. 19 in St. Joseph Church by Rev. Michael Hazard in Kalamazoo. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brule, of Kalamazoo, and he is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank McDevitt, of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a white organza gown, with white applied flowers. Linda Magnan served as the maid of honor with bridal attendants Mary Ockerman, Marlene McDevitt, Diane McDevitt, Cindy Brule, and Charlene Brule.

Bill McDevitt served as his brother's best man, with ushers Paul Brule, Phil Brule, Pat McDevitt and Paul McDevitt.

The bride is a graduate of Farmington High School and a student at Western Michigan University who will graduate in 1978 with a computer systems engineer degree.

Upon returning from a wedding trip to Hilton Head Island, S. C., the couple will make their home in Kalamazoo.

Edwards-Lynn

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Edwards of 33330 Raphael, Farmington Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Theresa A. Edwards, to Dwight T. Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Lynn, 26070 Pillsbury, Farmington Hills.

The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School, employed as an ultrasound technologist in Southfield's Providence Hospital. Her fiancé is a 1970 graduate of North Farmington High School, employed by Lynn Equipment Co.

A September wedding is planned in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington.

Average family budget

How does your family's budget compare with the average? According to the Department of Labor, an urban, middle-class family of four spends about one fourth of its income on housing, a little less on taxes and about a fifth on food. The remaining third goes for everything else.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young III

Susan Hough and Thomas J. Young III were wed in late morning ceremonies in Nardin Park United Methodist Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hough, Jr., of Hillsborough, Cal., and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young, Jr., of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a white peau de soie gown, embroidered with Italian lace and styled with empire lines, with a V-neckline, buttons down the back, and a long illusion veil bordered with embroidered lace. She carried a bouquet of white fuchsia, chrysanthemums, stephanotis, baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Kay Hough served as her sister's maid of honor in a blue empire crepe gown with chiffon butterfly sleeves. Bridesmaids were Debbie Kockos, Susan Franz, Denise Eulster, and Mary Giambalvo.

Larry Shaheen was best man, who served with ushers Gregg Young, Kevin Young, Jerry Warren and Mike Graham.

The bride is a graduate of Notre Dame High School and University of California in Los Angeles. The groom is a graduate of Harrison High School and Central Michigan University, and is now employed as a manager of the Victoria Station restaurants.

The couple received guests in Forest Lake Country Club, in Bloomfield Hills, before leaving on a wedding trip to California, where a reception is planned in Hillsborough Racquet Club.

Mrs. James Kevin Trimmer

Suanne Tiberio and James Kevin Trimmer were wed by Rev. Robert L. Lindsey and Father Charles J. Malloy in St. Fabian Catholic Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Tiberio, of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Trimmer of Bloomfield Hills.

The bride wore an antique white gown of taffeta and chiffon, with natural waistline, accented pleated sleeves, and trim of lace, enhanced with seed pearls. Her headpiece was covered in matching lace attached with a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and ferns.

Laura Strom served as maid of honor, with bridesmaids Tamara Trimmer, Sandra Sleeves and Carol MacKenzie. They wore mint green dresses, with flowered chiffon canes, while they carried bouquets of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

The bridegroom was attended by James Peterson, Steven Tiberio, Ned Stieg and Rick Goff.

The bride is a graduate of University of Michigan, and currently a second year law student. The groom is a graduate of University of Michigan and University of Illinois Law School. He is employed as an associate with Wilson & McVane, in Chicago.

Club Circuit

CATHOLIC ALUMNI CLUB will hold its annual Tex-Mex Party, Sept. 2, in the home of Joe Naporski, 1822 Thirteen Mile, Madison Heights. The party is given to raise money for a school in a poverty stricken area in Texas and Mexico.

The club will be celebrating its 20th anniversary this year, and invites single Catholics to join them in its monthly meetings, or at the fund-raising party.

Eligible members are those who are 21 or older, have a college degree, and free to be married in the Catholic Church.

Meetings are held the third Wednesday of every month in Mercy College, in Detroit. Special events are planned periodically. The next special event on the agenda is when the Detroit Club will host the clubs in the mid-west region for a convention in Dearborn Inn during the Thanksgiving weekend.

Membership inquiries will be taken by Naporski, at home, 585-6065.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS, Farmington-Southfield Chapter, will meet at 8:30 p.m., Sept. 8, in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall, 21900 Middle Belt, Farmington.

The club meets the second and fourth Thursdays of every month, and is open to parents without partners, only.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY, Farmington Area Branch, will meet at 7 p.m., Sept. 8, for a review of information about cancer and what services the branch is providing in the community.

The new branch meets the second Thursday of every month in the Farmington Community Library, 32737 Twelve Mile. All meetings of the club are open to all interested persons.
