Plymouth housewife had hoped to see her team pace the Bowlerettes League. But when it happened Monday night, she wasn't there because of a bad back.

A horse named Pledge does well in DRC series

Alan Silotte wrote of young men, not horses, in his short story classic, "The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner." The theme might still apply but not to the 4-year-old gelding Pledge.

The series, instituted several years ago by DRC racing secretary Tom Dorsey, has always been popular among racing fans.

backers have always been well rewarded as the gelding has paid win mutuels of $19.00, $10.80 and $10.60 in his three wins.

Pledge has responded well to the tactics of the Oklahoma native, running a poor race only once when he stopped at a mile and three-sixteenths after leading all the way until mid-strut.

lead and he faded in the stretch." Gibson said. "I think this horse can run all day, though, and I intend to stay with him in the distance series until I see that he can't go the distance," concluded Gibson.

Whether his horse can remain competitive as the fall progresses and the distances become longer and longer remains to be seen. But it's a sure bet that when the series goes again a week from Saturday, many DRC bettors will be willing to take the Pledge.

Falcon girls rip Raiders

Liz Merrell scored 14 points and Kim Patton added 12 to pace Farmington High's 56-23 victory over non-league North Farmington last week in a girls' basketball game played at Farmington.

Farmington plays next on Thursday (Sept. 29) at Waterford Township, while North Farmington entertains Livonia Franklin. Both games begin at 7 p.m.

Southfield attorney is new county judge

Gov. William Milliken recently announced the appointment, effective immediately, of Barry Grant of Southfield as Judge of Probate for Oakland County.

next general election for a full six-year term as Judge Adams' term would have expired Dec. 31, 1978. His appointment expires Jan. 1, 1979.

The victory was the first in three tries for coach Bob Lekovish's Farmington team. North's record dropped to 0-2.
