

Putting his back into the shovel

James Strauch of Plumbrooke, shoveling snow and smoking his pipe, appeared to have lost his shovel in the white mess that descended on all last Monday, as he cleared his driveway. City ordinance requires homeowners to shovel sidewalks in front of their homes. Persons, who because of health cannot shovel their walks, should contact the Community Placement Office (354-9167) for names of young people for snow shoveling jobs. (Staff photo by Gary Friedman)
