Fox-Lampela

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Fox of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda Sue, to Eric Paul Lampela, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lampela of Northville.

The bride-elect and her fiancé are both students at Schoolcraft College and will attend Michigan State University next year.

An August 1978 wedding is planned in St. John Lutheran Church in Farmington. The bride-elect's father, Pastor Fox, will officiate.

Miller-Mabley

Anne Jane Mabley was married to James Edward Miller Sept. 24 at Christ Church Cranbrook. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Mabley of Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Miller of Southfield.

After a wedding trip in northern Michigan, the couple returned to live in Clarkston.

Anniversary celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Howard of Sutton Place in Southfield celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a family dinner on Friday, Nov. 25 at the Standard Club in Detroit.

Attending the family party were the couple's children, Harvey A. Howard and his wife, Patti of Los Angeles and their daughter, Dr. Suzanne Howard of Alexandria, Virginia.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Howard are native Detroiters. He is an attorney, former justice of the peace, a past Beta Beta president and member of the American Humanist Association.

Mrs. Howard is a long-time activist in the Music Study Club of metropolitan Detroit, a member of Hadassah, ORT and the Ben Gurion Study Club.

Hertzberg-Faber

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hertzberg of Southfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Karyn Doreen, to Mark Douglas Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Faber, also of Southfield.

The bride-elect is a junior at the University of Michigan. Her fiancé is a senior at U-M.

A July wedding is planned.

It's here! The trend Collection of the year... featuring modular furniture designs that provide display space, storage space, and fashion excitement! No more "Bookcase Walls." Drexel's "Precedent" replaces solid walls with shimmering light, flooding in from every side. From light decks, light bridges, mirror units, from cases of every type, the light plays on surfaces of superbly engraved olive ash burl and pin knotty cherry. With accents of bronze glass and especially designed hardware Precedent promises a dazzling change for your bedrooms and family rooms (or any area). Look into it, today!

Local dancer stars in Nutcracker ballet

Kathryn Acheson, daughter of Mrs. Robert Altesee of Bloomfield Hills, will dance the role of Clara in the Nutcracker Ballet, in the Dec. 11 concert of the Oak Park Symphony. It will be held at 7 p.m. in Oak Park High auditorium. Kathryn is a senior at Birmingham Seaholm High School.

The program features Rose Marie Floyd's Contemporary Civic Ballet and marks the 22nd year in which Miss Floyd's dancers have performed with the Oak Park Symphony and its predecessor the South Oakland County Symphony.

Guest artist, Tony Catanzaro, principal dancer with the Boston Ballet Co. and formerly with the Joffrey Ballet, will appear as the Cavalier.

Other area dancers in the concert are: Beth Phillips, Judy Katz and Jennifer Wheat of Birmingham; Ellen Abrahams, Mary Margaret Wallace, Michelle Young, Renee Matson and Katie Vincour of Southfield; Jean Osburn and Alex Dam of Troy; James Vanev of Lathrup Village; and Andrea Ziegelman of Franklin.

This is the second program in the symphony's four concert series. The first featured violinist Jacob Krachmalnick in an all Brahms program.

The March concert will highlight popular symphonic favorites and the April program to be held in Temple Beth El, will feature Beethoven Ninth Symphony.

Adult tickets are $3.50, student tickets, $2.50. They are available at the Oak Park Library, Harrison's Violins in Berkeley and at the door at concert time.

Collias-Barnett

Mrs. Rosemary Collias of Southfield and James Collias of Harper Woods announce the engagement of their daughter, Marianne to Kenneth Alan Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barnett of Southfield.

The bride-elect is a senior at Western Michigan University, majoring in music education. Her fiancé graduated from Michigan State University.

A Dec. 24 wedding is planned.

Beveridge-Evans

Jane Evans was wed to Michael Allan Beveridge Spot 1 at the Congregational Church of Birmingham. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Allston Evans of Southfield. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas James Beveridge of St. Clair Shores.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, alençon lace and pearls with a matching headpiece and chapel length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The bride is a graduate of Groves High School and Northwestern Michigan College. The groom is a graduate of South Lake High School, the Great Lakes Maritime Academy and Northwestern Michigan.
